THE

NEWPORT MERCURY.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 29, 1797. [N° 1846.]

NEWPORT: (Rhode-Island) Published by HENRY BARBER, near the State-House.

For SALE, by

George Champlin,

CLEAN Hemp—Ravens' Duck—Cordage of all Sizes—Old Sable Bar-Iron—Jamaica Spirits, per Hogshead, high proof—Ruffia Soap, per Box—Jamaica Sugar, per Barrel—Havannah Ditto, per Box—And a Quantity of Ruffia Cordage, well aſſorted, entitled to Drawback.

Newport, Auguſt 21, 1797.

---

FOR SALE,

The Faſt-Sailing Schooner

JUNO,

Burthen 76 Tons, well found, and may be ſent immediately to Sea.—If not Sold, before Thurſday the 7th of September next, ſhe will on that Evening, be ſold at PUBLIC AUCTION, at the Coffee-Houſe.—Condition, Caſh.

For Terms, apply to

E. BURRILL.

Newport, Aug. 19, 1797.

---

Juſt Received, and for Sale,

A Few Puncheons of high proof Jamaica Spirits—Sugar, in Barrels—Coffee, Ginger, & &c.

Apply to E. BURRILL.

Who is in immediate Want of Three or Four Hundred Buſhels of GOOD OATS.

Newport, Aug 19, 1797.

---

Nathan B. Miller

HAS FOR SALE,

BRANDY, in Pipes and Quarter Caſks, 1ſt and 4th Proof,

COFFEE, by the Bag,

MALAGA WINE, by the Quarter-Caſk,

Firkin RAISINS,

CHOCOLATE, by the Box—Welch's, No. 2

PLAYING CARDS, by the Dozen.

LIKEWISE,

A ſmall Invoice of ſpices, containing

5 Bales of CASSIA,

10 lb. NUTMEGS,

30 lb. CLOVES.

---

WHEREAS the Subſcriber and MARY his Wife have mutually agreed to ſeparate each from the other, and whereas ſufficient Proviſion hath been made for ſaid Mary in the Articles of their Separation—Therefore all Perſons are hereby forbidden to credit her on account of the ſubſcriber, as he will not pay any Debts contracted by her.

JOHN GRAVEL.

Newport, Auguſt 25, 1797.

---

JOHN ECURS, jun.

Reſpectfully informs his Friends and the Public in General, that he has juſt received at his Store, directly oppoſite General MARTIN's,

A prime and elegant Aſſortment of DRY GOODS, ſuitable for the Seaſon, which he is determined to ſell very low.

BY WHOLESALE.

400 Pieces of thick Muſlins, of different Qualities and Widths,

50 Pieces Bandannoes,

100 Dimity Table Cloths.

J. E. jun. returns his Thanks to his former Cuſtomers, and requeſts a Continuance of their Favours.

---

To be LET,

The Wharf, Stores, &c.

belonging to WILLIAM REDWOOD ſituated at Redwood's Point, and poſſeſſion immediately given.—Alſo his MANSION HOUSE.

For Terms, apply to

V. WIGHTMAN.

---

TO BE SOLD, by the Subſcriber, his HOUSE and LOT, in Thames ſtreet, Four Doors South of the Brick Market, on the Eaſt Side of the Street—an excellent Stand for Buſineſs.

There is on the Premiſes a very convenient Store and Garden, an excellent Well of Water that is never dry, &c.—It is at preſent in the Occupation of Mr. William Street—Poſſeſſion will be given on the 12th of next Month—a Year's Credit on approved Notes for Part of the Pay (if required) will be given.

NICHOLAS P. TILLINGHAST.

Newport, Auguſt 7, 1797.

He has likewiſe to ſell, a very fine Bell-Metal Mortar, Weight 176¼—Part of a Caſk of Flour of Sulphur, Ditto of Madder, Ditto of Ground Redwood; and Two Neſts of Draws, lettered, one almoſt New.

---

TO BE SOLD,

A Dwelling-Houſe on the Point, with a good Well of Water, and other Conveniences. Apply to ELISHA GIBBS.

Newport, Auguſt 7, 1797.

---

Joſeph Finch

Has juſt Imported from Bourdeaux,

COGNAC BRANDY, of the Fourth Proof and upwards, of an excellent Flavour, Colour and Taſte; which he will diſpoſe of, at One Dollar and Eighty three Cents and one Third, per Gallon, by Wholeſale;—and at the Rate of Two Dollars per Gallon, at Retail.—All thoſe who would wiſh to buy Brandy, in its original State, may depend upon finding the ſame, at the Houſe of the Importer.

Newport Auguſt 8, 1797.

---

Tobacco and Snuff Manufactory.

KAIGHN & CAHOONE,

A few Doors South of the New Lane,

INFORM their Friends and Cuſtomers that they carry on the above Buſineſs as uſual and keep a conſtant Supply of the following Kinds of TOBACCO and SNUFF, by Wholeſale and Retail, viz.

Pigtail fine and coarſe—Ladies Twiſt—Segars; Negro Head; Cut Tobacco for chewing and ſmoking; Pigtail and Paper Tobacco, for ſhipping; Rappee and Scotch Snuff, Sweet ſcented Mountain Tobacco &c.

All the above Articles are warranted, and will be ſold as low as at New York, or any other State.

---

Stephen T. Northam

Informs the Public.

That he has juſt Opened at his Store oppoſite Mr. ETHAN CLARKE's,

A general Aſſortment of DRY GOODS,

Suitable for the Seaſon—Among which are,

A VARIETY of Calicoes, Chintzes and Patches; Book and Jaconet Muſlins; Men's Cotton, Plated, Silk and Thread Hoſe; Muſlin and Chintz Shawls; ¾ and Yard-wide Iriſh Linens; a large Aſſortment of Gentlemen's and Ladies' Beaver Hats; a large Aſſortment of Engliſh and India Settins; an Aſſortment of Marſeilles Veſt Patterns; Dimities and Muſlinets; Cotton and Linen Apron Checks; Cotton and Linen Shirting Ditto; Ginghams; Sarſnets and Luteſtrings, of different Colours; Brown and White Sheeting; Cotton and Linen Pocket Handkerchiefs; an Aſſortment of Cravats; an Aſſortment of Ladies' Morocco Shoes and Slippers; Tamberteens, Moreens, Stuffeens, Tammies, Barrinet, Durants, Thickets and Velvets; Superfine and coarſe Broadcloths; Superfine and coarſe Caſſimeres; Flannel, Baize, Coating, Duffil, and a large Supply of India Cottons, from 20d. to 2/6 per Yard—and many other Articles, too tedious to mention.

Alſo—Rice and Indigo, by the Caſk, or ſmaller Quantity; Tar, Pitch, Turpentine, and Cordage.—All which he is determined to ſell, on very low Terms.

☞ He has juſt received, a freſh Supply of Ladies' MOROCCO SLIPPERS, of different Colours.

Newport, May 22, 1797.

---

BOSTON, Auguſt 21.

In our ſketch of the feſtive proceedings of Wedneſday laſt, we omitted to mention the previous token of reſpect paid to our illuſtrious PRESIDENT, by the reſpectable Committee, appointed to addreſs him, in behalf of the ſubſcribers; it follows;—

BOSTON, AUG 7, 1797.

SIR,

WE are commiſſioned by a large number of reſpectable citizens of Boſton, and its vicinity, to congratulate you, in their names, upon your late return to your family and friends; and to aſſure you of the high reſpect they entertain for your perſonal character, and your official conduct. To evidence this publicly and reſpectfully, they have made arrangements for a Public Dinner upon the occaſion, at which they requeſt the honor of your preſence.

At a period, critical and important as the preſent, when domeſtic faction appears to have conſpired with foreign intrigue, to deſtroy the Peace of our Country—When our Conſtituted Authorities are reviled and inſulted, and the moſt daring attempts to ſeparate the People from their Government, are openly made and avowed;—At ſuch a criſis we are excited, no leſs by our inclination than our duty, to reprobate openly their wicked machinations, and to declare our fixed reſolution to ſupport the meaſures, which government may adopt, to defeat their nefarious deſigns.

To us, Sir, it is a pleaſing reflection that, at this juncture, the intereſts and the honour of our Country are, in ſo great a degree, committed to your immediate care and protection; perſuaded, that this ſacred and important truſt can no where elſe be depoſited, to command ſo general and perfect a confidence.

Permit us, Sir, to add, that as Citizens of Maſſachuſetts, we feel a peculiar pride and pleaſure, in your being placed at the head of the Union, when we recollect, that we have the honour to recognize you, as one of our number.

May your health and uſefulneſs long be continued to our Country; and may its Citizens ever retain and expreſs a grateful ſenſe of the benefits they have derived from your public ſervices.

BENJAMIN LINCOLN,
THOMAS DAWES
OLIVER WENDELL,
JONATHAN MASON,
JONATHAN JACKSON,
STEPHEN HIGGINSON.

To the PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES.

To which the PRESIDENT was pleaſed to reply:

GENTLEMEN,

YOUR kind congratulations on my return to my family and friends, are very obliging. Your politic invitation is accepted with pleaſure.

At this period, when in many parts of the world, diſorder, indiſcipline and diſobedience to every kind of authority, faſhioned into a ſort of ſcience, are vindicated as rights, and inculcated as duties, it is not to be expected, that our Country ſhould wholly eſcape their contageous effects.

Although many of our worthy Citizens may flatter themſelves, that calumnies and contempts againſt the Conſtituted Authorities will not make a dangerous impreſſion upon a public opinion, which is formed with ſo much deliberation, intelligence and integrity, as it generally is among us; and may believe, that the ſagacity and candour, with which the body of the people obſerve the characters of public men, and weigh the tendency of public meaſures, will be a ſufficient ſecurity for the Government; yet I cannot but be of the opinion, that the preſſ gate ſpirit of diſſhood and malignity, which has appeared in ſome, and the organized diſpoſition in others, to encourage it, are ſerious evils, and bear a threatening aſpect upon the Union of the States, their Conſtitution of Government, and the moral character of the Nation.

The idea of ſeparating the People from a Government of their own choice can originate with none but enemies of Republican Governments. Such a project were it practicable, would be a demonſtration, that the People are not capable of ſuch a government; and by a ſudden introduction of willing calamities, would ſoon convince the People themſelves of the neceſſity of inſtituting another form, for their own ſecurity and protection. The decided reprobation of ſuch nefarious deſigns by the Citizens of Boſton and its vicinity, will have a great effect in counteracting them.

The preſent age has furniſhed examples in abundance, of degradations and diſaſters brought upon nations, by conſpiracies between foreign intrigue and domeſtic faction. It will be happy indeed for American citizens, if they ſhould learn wiſdom from the woes of others.

The perſonal compliments you are pleaſed to preſent to me, are the more grateful, as it has been the pride of my life to be reckoned as one of your number. Aſſurances of approbation in age, from the friends and companions of our youth and riper years, I ſhall ever eſteem amongſt the choiceſt delights of life.

Accept, Gentlemen, of my kindeſt wiſhes for your health and happineſs, and for the proſperity of the town of Boſton and its vicinity, venerable in our American Hiſtory, for virtues and wiſdom, as well as antiquity.

JOHN ADAMS.

Quincy, Auguſt 7, 1797.

---

The entertainment at Faneuil Hall, cloſed with the following patriotic and inſpiring toaſts:

1ſt. The United States. May their temperate and virtuous policy, be admired by all nations, and may their energies never be paſſified by Foreign Influence or Domeſtic Faction.

2d. The State of Maſſachuſetts. May ſhe be as conſpicuous in ſupporting our National Government, as ſhe has been in eſtabliſhing the Independence of our Country.

3d. GEO. WASHINGTON. May the Sun of Columbia's glory ſhine beaming thro' the tranquil ſhades of Mount Vernon, long gladden the eye of him who kindled up its fires.

4th. The Federal Conſtitution, whoſe Legiſlative, Judicial and Executive Powers combine, to form a three-fold cord which cannot be broken.

5th. The Neutrality of the United States.—As it originated in a reſpect for the rights of other Nations, ſo may it be reſpected by them.

6th. Nations in Amity with the United States. May Good Will and Good Faith form the Baſis of our Mutual Intercourſe.

7th. Nations at variance with the United States. May the Sword of Juſtice fall upon the heads of thoſe only, who ſhall refuſe to be weighed in her ſcales.

8th. Agriculture and Commerce. May the hardy ſons of Columbia freely plough both Earth and Sea, and from both receive an ample recompence for their toil.

9th. Yeomanry of our Country, whoſe Intelligence and Patriotiſm ſupport our Government, as their labours ſuſtain our Lives.

10th. The Fiſheries. May we recollect with gratitude the able and independent negociations of Mr. JAY, and his illuſtrious Cotemporary, which ſecured to us this important ſource of National Strength and Proſperity.

11th. Manufactures and Mechanic Arts. May we encourage them ſo far as may be neceſſary for National Defence, and as may be productive of National Proſperity.

12th. Our Envoys Extraordinary to the French Republic. May the iſſue of their Negociations vindicate our National Character abroad, and Silence the Clamours of Faction at home.

13th. Europe.—May her convulſions ſoon terminate in the eſtabliſhment of Equal Liberty and rational Religion, protected by Stable Government.

14th. TIMOTHY PICKERING. Regardleſs of the feeble Malice of his Calumniators, may he continue to ferret Foreign Influence from its lurking places.

15th. Our Diplomatic Department. May thoſe who compoſe it, never forget that they are appointed to guard the Intereſts of their own Country, and not to ſacrifice them to the Ambition of another.

---

VOLUNTEER TOASTS.

By the Preſident of the United States. The Citizens of Boſton and its vicinity.

After the Preſident and Governor had withdrawn—

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES. May the happy effects of his adminiſtration, correſpond with thoſe lively preſages, which his eminent Virtues and Talents have ſo juſtly inſpired.

His Excellency the Governor. May every State in the Union like Maſſachuſetts exhibit in its Firſt Magiſtrate a true Federaliſt.

By General Lincoln. The World.—May there be more Light in it, and leſs War.

ALEXANDER HAMILTON. May his Character and Talents never be forgotten, but may they be ever burniſhed by the Calumnies of his Enemies.

The Rev. Clergy. May they continue to oppoſe an inſurmountable barrier, againſt heretical opinions, in Church and State.

THE

NEWPORT MERCURY.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 29, 1797. [N° 1846.]

NEWPORT: (Rhode-Island) Published by HENRY BARBER, near the State-House.

For SALE, by

George Champlin,

CLEAN Hemp—Ravens' Duck—Cordage of all Sizes—Old Sable Bar-Iron—Jamaica Spirits, per Hogshead, high proof—Ruffia Soap, per Box—Jamaica Sugar, per Barrel.—Havannah Ditto, per Box—And a Quantity of Ruffia Cordage, well assorted, entitled to Drawback.

Newport, Auguft 21, 1797.

FOR SALE,

The Fast-Sailing Schooner

JUNO,

Burthen 76 Tons, well found, and may be fent immediately to Sea.—If not Sold, before September next, fhe will Thurfday the 7th of Sold at PUBLIC on that Evening, be AUCTION, at the Coffee-Houfe.—Condition, Cafh.

For Terms, apply to

E. BURRILL.

Newport, Aug. 19, 1797.

Juft Received, and for Sale,

A Few Puncheons of high proof Jamaica Spirits—Sugar, in Barrels—Coffee, Ginger, & &c.

Apply to E. BURRILL.

Who is in immediate Want of Three or Four Hundred Bufhels of GOOD OATS.

Newport, Aug 19, 1797.

Nathan B. Miller

HAS FOR SALE,

BRANDY, in Pipes and Quarter Casks, 1ft and 4th Proof,

COFFEE, by the Bag,

MALAGA WINE, by the Quarter-Cask,

Firkin RAISINS,

CHOCOLATE, by the Box—Welch's, No. 2

PLAYING CARDS, by the Dozen.

LIKEWISE,

A fmall Invoice of fpices, containing

5 Bales of CASSIA,

12 lb. NUTMEGS,

30 lb. CLOVES.

WHEREAS the Subfcriber and MARY his Wife have mutually agreed to feparate, each from the other, and whereas fufficient Provifion hath been made for faid Mary in the Articles of their Separation—Therefore all Perfons are hereby forbidden to credit her on Account of the Subfcriber, as he will not pay any Debts contracted by her.

JOHN GRAVEL.

Newport, Auguft 19, 1797.

JOHN BURS, jun.

Refpectfully informs his Friends and the Public in General, that he has juft received at his Store, directly oppofite General MARTIN's,

A prime and elegant Affortment of DRY GOODS, fuitable for the Seafon, which he is determined to fell very low.

BY WHOLESALE,

400 Pieces of thick Muflins, of different Qualities and Widths,

50 Pieces Bandannoes,

100 Dimity Table Cloths.

J. B. jun. returns his Thanks to his former Cuftomers, and requefts a Continuance of their Favours.

To be LET,

The Wharf, Stores, &c.

belonging to WILLIAM REDWOOD fituated on Kaften's Point, and Poffeffion immediately given.—Alfo his MANSION HOUSE. For Terms, apply to

V. WIGHTMAN.

TO BE SOLD, by the Subfcriber, his HOUSE and LOT, in Thames ftreet, Four Doors South of the Brick Market, on the Eaft Side of the Street—an excellent Stand for Bufinefs.

There is on the Premifes a very convenient Store and Garden, an excellent Well of Water that is never dry, &c.—It is at prefent in the Occupation of Mr. William Street—Poffeffion will be given on the 12th of next Month—a Year's Credit on approved Notes for Part of the Pay (if required) will be given.

NICHOLAS P. TILLINGHAST.

Newport, Auguft 7, 1797.

He has likewife to fell, a very fine Bell-Metal Mortar, Weight 176½—Part of a Cafk of Flour of Sulphur, Ditto of Madder, Ditto of Ground Redwood; and Two Neffs of Draws, lettered, one almoft New.

TO BE SOLD,

A Dwelling-Houfe on the Point, with a good Well of Water, and other Conveniences. Apply to ELISHA GIBBS.

Newport, Auguft 7, 1797.

Joſeph Finch

Has juft Imported from Bourdeaux,

COGNAC BRANDY, of the Fourth Proof and upwards, of an excellent Flavour, Colour and Taſte; which he will difpofe of, at One Dollar and Eighty three Cents and one Third, per Gallon, by Wholefale;—and at the Rate of Two Dollars per Gallon, at Retail.—All thofe who would wifh to buy Brandy, in its original State, may depend upon finding the fame, at the Houfe of the Importer.

Newport, Auguft 8, 1797.

Tobacco and Snuff Manufactory.

KAIGHN & CAHOONE,

A few Doors South of the New Lane,

INFORM their Friends and Cuſtomers that they carry on the above Buſineſs as uſual, and keep a conſtant Supply of the following Kinds of TOBACCO and SNUFF, by Wholeſale and Retail, viz.

Pigtail fine and coarſe—Ladies Twiſt—Segars; Negro Head; Cut Tobacco for chewing and ſmoaking; Pigtail and Paper Tobacco, for ſhipping; Kappee and Scotch Snuff, Sweet ſcented Mountain Tobacco &c.

All the above Articles are warranted, and will be ſold as low as at New York, or any other State.

Stephen T. Northam

Informs the Public,

That he has juſt Opened at his Store oppoſite Mr. ETHAN CLARKE's,

A general Aſſortment of DRY GOODS,

Suitable for the Seaſon—Among which are,

A VARIETY of Calicoes, Chintzes and Patches; Book and Jaconet Muſlins; Men's Cotton, Plated, Silk and Thread Hofe; Muſlin and Chintz Shawls; ¾ and Yard-wide Iriſh Linens; a large Aſſortment of Gentlemen's and Ladies' Beaver Hats; a large Aſſortment of Engliſh and India Sattins; an Aſſortment of Marſeilles Veſt Patterns; Dimities and Muſlinets; Cotton and Linen Apron Checks; Cotton and Linen Shirting Ditto; Ginghams; Sarſnets and Luteſtrings, of different Colours; Brown and White Sheeting; Cotton and Linen Pocket Handkerchiefs; an Aſſortment of Cravats; an Aſſortment of Ladies' Morocco Shoes and Slippers; Tamboretns, Moreens, Shalloons, Tammies, Sattinet, Durants, Thickſets and Velvets; Superfine and coarſe Broadcloths; Superfine and coarſe Caſſimeres; Flannel, Baize, Coating, Duffil, and a large Supply of India Cottons, from 10d. to 2/6 per Yard—and many other Articles, too tedious to mention.

Alſo—Rice and Indigo, by the Cafk, or ſmaller Quantity; Tar, Pitch, Turpentine, and Corn.—All which he is determined to ſell, on very low Terms.

☞ He has juſt received, a freſh Supply of Ladies' MOROCCO SLIPPERS, of different Colours.

Newport, May 22, 1797.

BOSTON, Auguſt 22.

In our ſketch of the feſtive proceedings of Wedneſday laſt, we omitted to mention the previous tribute of reſpect paid to our illuſtrious PRESIDENT, by the reſpectable Committee, appointed to addreſs him, in behalf of the ſubſcribers; it follows;—

BOSTON, AUG 7, 1797.

SIR,

WE are commiſſioned by a large number of reſpectable citizens of Boſton, and its vicinity, to congratulate you, in their names, upon your late return to your family and friends; and to aſſure you of the high reſpect they entertain for your perſonal character, and your official conduct. To evidence this publicly and reſpectfully, they have made arrangements for a Public Dinner upon the occaſion, at which they requeſt the honor of your preſence.

At a period, critical and important as the preſent, when domeſtic faction appears to have conſpired with foreign intrigue, to deſtroy the Peace of our Country—When our Conſtituted Authorities are reviled and inſulted, and the moſt daring attempts to ſeparate the People from their Government, are openly made and avowed;—At ſuch a criſis we are excited, no leſs by our inclination than our duty, to reprobate openly their wicked machinations, and to declare our fixed reſolution to ſupport the meaſures, which government may adopt, to defeat their nefarious deſigns.

To us, Sir, it is a pleaſing reflection that, at this juncture, the intereſts and the honour of our Country are, in ſo great a degree, committed to your immediate care and protection; perſuaded, that this ſacred and important truſt can no where elſe be depoſited, to command ſo general and perfect a confidence.

Permit us, Sir, to add, that as Citizens of Maſſachuſetts, we feel a peculiar pride and pleaſure, in your being placed at the head of the Union, when we recollect, that we have the honour to recognize you, as one of our number.

May your health and uſefulneſs long be continued to our Country; and may its Citizens ever retain and expreſs a grateful ſenſe of the benefits they have derived from your public ſervices.

BENJAMIN LINCOLN,
THOMAS DAWES,
OLIVER WENDELL,
JONATHAN MASON,
JONATHAN JACKSON,
STEPHEN HIGGINSON.

To the PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES.

To which the PRESIDENT was pleaſed to reply:

GENTLEMEN,

YOUR kind congratulations on my return to my family and friends, are very obliging. Your polite invitation is accepted with pleaſure.

At this period, when in many parts of the world, diſorder, indiſcipline and diſobedience to every kind of authority, faſhioned into a ſort of ſcience, are vindicated as rights, and inculcated as duties, it is not to be expected, that our Country ſhould wholly eſcape their contageous effects.

Although many of our worthy Citizens may flatter themſelves, that calumnies and contempts againſt the Conſtituted Authorities will not make a dangerous impreſſion upon a public opinion, which is formed with ſo much deliberation, intelligence and integrity, as it generally is among us; and may believe, that the ſagacity and candour, with which the body of the people obſerve the characters of public men, and weigh the tendency of public meaſures, will be a ſufficient ſecurity for the Government; yet I cannot but be of the opinion, that the profligate ſpirit of falſhood and malignity, which has appeared in ſome, and the unguarded diſpoſition in others, to encourage it, are ſerious evils, and bear a threatening aſpect upon the Union of the States, their Conſtitution of Government, and the moral character of the Nation.

The idea of ſeparating the People from a Government of their own choice can originate with none but enemies of Republican Governments. Such a project were it practicable, would be a demonſtration, that the People are not capable of ſuch a government; and by a ſudden introduction of waſting calamities, would ſoon convince the People themſelves of the neceſſity of inſtituting another form, for their own ſecurity and protection. The decided reprobation of ſuch nefarious deſigns by the Citizens of Boſton and its vicinity, will have a great effect in defeating them.

The preſent age has furniſhed examples in abundance, of degradations and diſaſters brought upon nations, by conſpiracies between foreign intrigue and domeſtic faction. It will be happy indeed for American citizens, if they ſhould learn wiſdom from the woes of others.

The perſonal compliments you are pleaſed to preſent to me, are the more grateful, as it has been the pride of my life to be reckoned as one of your number. Aſſurances of approbation in age, from the friends and companions of our youth and riper years, I ſhall ever eſteem amongſt the choiceſt delights of life.

Accept, Gentlemen, of my kindeſt wiſhes for your health and happineſs, and for the proſperity of the town of Boſton and its vicinity, venerable in our American Hiſtory, for virtues and wiſdom, as well as antiquity.

JOHN ADAMS.

Quincy, Auguſt 7, 1797.

The entertainment at Faneuil Hall, cloſed with the following patriotic and inſpiring toaſts:

1ſt. The United States. May their temperate and virtuous policy, be admired by all nations, and may their energies never be paſſified by Foreign Influence or Domeſtic Faction.

2d. The State of Maſſachuſetts. May ſhe be as conſpicuous in ſupporting our National Government, as ſhe has been in eſtabliſhing the Independence of our Country.

3d. GEO. WASHINGTON. May the Sun of Columbia's glory mildly beaming thro' the tranquil ſhades of Mount Vernon, long gladden the eye of him who kindled up its fires.

4th. The Federal Conſtitution, whoſe Legiſlative, Judicial and Executive Powers combine, to form a threefold cord which cannot be broken.

5th. The Neutrality of the United States.—As it originated in a reſpect for the rights of other Nations, ſo may it be reſpected by them.

6th. Nations in Amity with the United States. May Good Will and Good Faith form the Baſis of our Mutual Intercourſe.

7th. Nations at variance with the United States. May the Sword of Juſtice fall upon the heads of thoſe only, who ſhall refuſe to be weighed in her ſcales.

8th. Agriculture and Commerce. May the hardy ſons of Columbia freely plough both Earth and Sea, and from both receive an ample recompence for their toil.

9th. Yeomanry of our Country, whoſe Intelligence and Patriotiſm ſupport our Government, as their labours ſuſtain our Lives.

10th. The Fiſheries. May we recollect with gratitude the able and independent negociations of Mr. JAY, and his illuſtrious Co-patriot, which ſecured to us this important Source of National Strength and Proſperity.

11th. Manufactures and Mechanic Arts. May we encourage them ſo far as may be neceſſary for National Defence, and as may be productive of National Proſperity.

12th. Our Envoys Extraordinary to the French Republic. May the iſſue of their Negociations vindicate our National Character abroad, and Silence the Clamours of Faction at home.

13th. Europe.—May her convulſions ſoon terminate in the eſtabliſhment of Equal Liberty and rational Religion, protected by ſtable Government.

14th. TIMOTHY PICKERING. Regardleſs of the feeble Malice of his Calumniators, may he continue to ferret Foreign Influence from its lurking places.

15th. Our Diplomatic Department. May thoſe who compoſe it, never forget that they are appointed to guard the Intereſts of their own Country, and not to ſacrifice them to the Ambition of another.

VOLUNTEER TOASTS.

By the Preſident of the United States. The Citizens of Boſton and its vicinity.

After the Preſident and Governor had withdrawn—

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES. May the happy effects of his adminiſtration, correſpond with thoſe lively preſages, which his eminent Virtues and Talents have ſo juſtly inſpired.

His Excellency the Governor. Every State in the Union like Maſſachuſetts exhibit in its Firſt Magiſtrate a true Federaliſt.

By General Lincoln. The World.—May there be more Light in it, and leſs War.

ALEXANDER HAMILTON. May his Character and Talents never be forgotten, but may they be ever burniſhed by the Calumniator of his Enemies.

The Rev. Clergy. May they continue to oppoſe an inſurmountable barrier, againſt heterodox opinions, in Church and State.

Late European Intelligence.

AMSTERDAM, June 7.

A CIRCUMSTANCE favourable to our commerce is, that several ships, richly laden from America, entered the ports of the Republic a few days ago. They could hardly have escaped the vigilance of the English fleet, if the latter had been still at sea.

PARIS, June 9.

Poule, the relation of Sieyes, has been tried by the criminal tribunal of the Seine. After Sieyes and the other witnesses had been examined—the following questions were put to the jury:

Question. Has an attack been made on the person of the representative Sieyes, with a pistol?

Answer of the jury. Yes.

Q. Is Poule convicted of having made that attack?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he make it intentionally?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he make this attack, without the necessity of lawfully defending himself or another?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he make it in consequence of a violent provocation?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he commit the fact with premeditation?

A. No.

Q. Did he do it with intent to kill?

A. Yes.

Poule was therefore convicted—condemned to twenty years imprisonment and six hours pillory.

[The foregoing furnishes a specimen of the mode of finding a verdict in France. It differs from the general verdict of the English, but comprehends, in a concise form, the essential articles of a special verdict. The questions put to the jury contain also the distinctions necessary to define murder and manslaughter, precisely as laid down in the common law of England and the United States; distinctions which, being founded in reason, are applicable equally to all nations.]

June 22.

L'Eclair says—"One disorder brings on another. The club of Jacobins engenders the club of Monarchists. We shall have in a short time, if the Government does not take care, Vendean Republicans and Vendean Royalists.—In a word, a civil war is at our doors. The truth must be told: if this new misfortune is to succeed to all the revolution has brought forth, we shall be indebted for it to the weakness of our Governors, who know no more how to govern according to the laws than against the laws"

LONDON, June 25.

Yesterday a Cabinet Council was held at Lord Grenville's Office, on the subject of the Answer received from the French Directory, explaining the objectionable phrase of "Separate Peace," in their former Note. The explanation is deemed satisfactory, and every impediment to an immediate Negociation for Peace has been removed. On the breaking up of the Council at Three o'Clock, a Messenger was despatched to Windsor, and another to Lord Malmesbury, at Henley, requiring his return to Town.

We have the satisfaction to know, that let the Negociation take what turn it may, there are at least very solid hopes, at its commencement, that it will be brought to an amicable conclusion.—M. Barthelemy has certainly written a letter to Lord Grenville in the most friendly terms, expressing his wish for the return of Peace; and the despatches received on Tuesday night contained a passport for our Embassy. The story propagated through the Paris Papers, that the Directory did not think it necessary that any person should come to Paris until the basis of the negociation was agreed upon, is wholly void of foundation.—No such stipulation was ever under consideration.

June 26.

Lord Malmesbury, Minister Plenipotentiary, Mr. Charles Ellis, Secretary of Embassy; Lyndon Gower, Morpeth and Pembroke; Assistant Secretaries; and Mr. James Rose, Private Secretary, will set off for France on Friday next, if Lord Malmesbury should by that time have sufficiently recovered his health for the journey.—The Commissioners on both sides will probably make their public entry into Lisle by the two opposite gates on Monday or Tuesday next.

A Cabinet Council met this day, at one o'clock, on the business.

Lord Malmesbury, we are happy to say, is much recovered from his late indisposition.—He sets out on Friday for Lisle. Mr. Ellis, who accompanied him upon his Embassy to Paris, attends him also upon the present mission.

The prevalant ornament amongst our fashionable females is a small lock and key suspended by gold chains from the centre of their girdles;—this is a system of monopoly, we can by no means approve of. Let them have the locks with all our spirit, but leave the keys for more appropriate wearers.

Mr. Baldwin of Prescott has adopted a principle to the rowing of the vessels on inland water. An experiment was lately made on the Surrey canal, when a vessel heavily laden was moved with greater rapidity than could be effected by hawlers or rowers, through the simple agency of this steam engine the owners performing eighteen strokes in a minute. The invention promises to be highly beneficial to inland navigation.

It is with much pleasure we announce the ratification of a new Treaty of Amity and Commerce between Russia and Great Britain. This important paper was brought to England by Majstre, the Messenger, who arrived some days ago in London from Petersburg. By Gentlemen who had an opportunity of examining its contents, we are assured, that this Treaty is the most advantageous for Great Britain ever concluded between the two countries.—This is a convincing proof of the friendly disposition of the Emperor of Russia towards England.

SUPPRESSION OF THE MUTINY.

June 29.

In consequence of the decisive measures adopted by the Government, for suppressing the mutiny on board the Ships, at Sheerness, &c. the loyal parts of the crews began to exert themselves; and in a few days, the ships were delivered up to the Officers; and the crews surrendered at discretion.

Order being intirely restored, the ringleaders of the mutiny were taken into custody; and RICHARD PARKER, who styled himself President of the Delegates, was ordered for immediate trial. The Court-Martial sat the 23d June, on board the Neptune, of 98 guns. Admiral PASLEY presided.—After a trial of four days, the prisoner was called on for his defence; which he read. In this defence, he commented on the evidence against him; and endeavoured to prove, "that his conduct had been in no instance, disrespectful to Admiral Buckner, the Commander of the squadron;—that he accepted the Presidency of the Directory, to check the progress of the bad spirit which prevailed on board the fleet;—that he had endeavoured to prevent the effusion of blood;—that he could not be accused of Disloyalty to his King and Country; and pleaded, that the tunes always played round the ships, were, "God save the King" "Rule Britannia," and "Britons strike home"—That as a mark of loyalty, when Lord Northesk came on board the Sandwich, he ordered the band to strike up, "God save the King."—That in a letter to his Lordship, he informed him,—"That an oath had been taken by the Delegates of the fleet, that they have never any communication with Jacobins and traitors!"—That on board the ships, besides the music, that they expressed their veneration for their Sovereign; and that they had been heard to say, that if there was a certainty that the enemy's fleet was at sea, they would take the fleet under their protection, and go in quest of them; and that if the Dutch fleet were in the Texel, he, (Parker) would lead the fleet in and attack them, to prove to the nation that they were neither rebels nor traitors!—That on loyal days, the standard was hoisted at the mizen, &c."

After he called his evidence, the Court was cleared at one o'clock, and at four he was recalled into Court, and the following sentence was awarded against him:

SENTENCE OF THE COURT.

"That a Court Martial, of the Gentlemen whose names we have already mentioned, had assembled on Thursday the 22d inst. on board his Majesty's ship Neptune, and sat till Monday the 26 h inst. inclusive, in pursuance of an order of the Lords Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of England, for the trial of Richard Parker, on various charges of having excited a dangerous mutiny on board the Sandwich, and others of his Majesty's ships at the Nore, under the command of Vice Admiral Buckner, of disobedience of the orders of his officers, and of contempt to his superiors. That the Court had proceeded to try the said Richard Parker; and having heard the evidence adduced in support of the charges, and also that advanced by the Prisoner in his defence, are of opinion, and do adjudge, that the whole of the charges have been fully proved; in consequence of which, and in consideration of the enormity of the crimes so proved, as unprecedented in their nature, as wicked in their tendency, and as ruinous to the naval strength as to the peace and safety of the country, the Court adjudges the said Richard Parker to suffer death, and to be hanged by the neck, on board any one of his Majesty's ships, and at such time as the Lords of the Admiralty may think proper to appoint; and he is hereby adjudged to suffer death accordingly."

Parker, the Prisoner, with a degree of fortitude and undismayed composure, which excited the astonishment and admiration of every one, spoke as follows:—

"I bow to your sentence with all due submission, being convinced I have acted from the dictates of a good conscience.—God, who knows the hearts of all men, will, I hope, receive me. I hope that my death alone will atone for the country; and that those brave men who have acted with me, will receive a general pardon: I am satisfied, they will all return to their duty with alacrity."

President. It is on the breast of the Court, to order you for execution immediately; but we think it better, to give you time to repent your crime.

Prisoner. I return you my thanks for the indulgence.

The warrant for the execution of Parker, the mutineer, was yesterday signed by the Lords of the Admiralty. Friday next, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, is said to be the time for carrying into effect the awful sentence of the court martial.

The order went down yesterday from Admiralty for the execution of Johnson and Ashley, for mutiny on board the Pompee—they were to be executed this day.

June 28.

A commercial intercourse is, in some degree already opened between England and the French Republic, and considerable goods have recently been shipped for France, without interruption from the government of either country.

The Batavian Constitution is at length completed, and will be speedily presented for the acceptance of the people. It is still more democratic than the French.

Admiral Duncan's fleet on the 21st inst. was at anchor off the mouth of the Texel.

An American ship ——, Pierepont, master, is taken and carried into Nantes.—She is valued at 200,000l.

The debates in the Council of Five Hundred on the subject of finances were revived on the 19th instant, and conducted with such heat, that the members, in their anxiety to mount the tribune, collared one another, and tore off their shirts and clothes. The motion which gave rise to this discussion, was to repeal the restrictions imposed on the Directory, by the late resolutions of Gilbert Delmolliere. On this motion the Council passed to the order of the day.

In the sitting of the 20th inst. Pastoret, called the attention of the Council to the political situation of France and the United States of America.—Adverting to the treaty of 1778 he professed himself unable to conceive how the Directory could issue the order of the 2d March last, which was equivalent to a declaration of war. "What" said Pastoret, "have been the acts of hostility which have provoked this order? I admit that the Commercial Treaty in 1794 between Washington and England, may give rise to some suspicions respecting the United States; but these are not sufficient to justify a violation of the Constitution." The Orator concluded by moving for a Message to the Directory, requiring an account of the political situation of France contained in relation to the United States, and that all the orders of the Directory be sent to the Committee appointed to consider how far the Legislative Body can annul the orders of the Executive Body. Those Resolutions were, with some alterations, as to the Committee and the order of proceeding, adopted, and the Speech of Pastoret, was ordered to be printed.

PHILADELPHIA, August 19.

In the ship Adriana, Captain Lee, arrived here last evening from Bristol, came passenger that illustrious defender of the rights of mankind, the brave but unfortunate KOSCIUSKO, the Polish General, accompanied by two Polish gentlemen. On the arrival of the ship at the fort, the commander of the garrison being informed that the veteran General was on board, welcomed him by a federal salute, and, when the vessel came to anchor in our harbor, the sailing master of the frigate had its barge manned with eight masters of vessels and waited on the General to take him on shore. On his landing, he was received with three cheers, and, as a further mark of popular respect for this great character, the citizens who were present insisted on drawing him to his lodgings.

The General appears to be in good spirits; but has suffered very materially from his wounds and inhuman imprisonment. We trust, however, he will long live to enjoy, on these peaceful shores, that liberty and happiness which he assisted in fighting for, but which he fought in vain to obtain for his native country.

The General speaks in the handsomest terms of the treatment which he has received from Capt. Lee during his voyage.

NEW-YORK, August 15.

We are happy to see proposals issued by the Rev. Mr. Holmes of Cambridge, for publishing the life of Dr. Stiles, late President of Yale College. The life of so eminent a man must furnish many curious particulars, and in the hands of so able and impartial a character as Mr. Holmes, they cannot fail to be rendered valuable and interesting.

Mr. John Fenno, editor and proprietor of the Gazette of the United States, has obtained a Copy-right of a book, entitled, "Observations on certain documents contained in No. V. and VI. of "The History of the United States for the year 1796," in which the charge of speculation, against Alexander Hamilton, late Secretary of the Treasury, is fully refuted —Written by himself."

August 18.

Yesterday morning between the hours of 11 and 12, John Young who was sentenced to death for the murder of Robert Berwick, one of the deputy sheriffs, was executed pursuant to his sentence. The sheriff of the city on account of some anonimous letters which he had received, having expressed to the executive an apprehension of a rescue, a detachment of the militia were under arms on the occasion —The magistrates of the city were also attending at a house adjacent to the place of execution—But though the crowd of spectators was immense; not the smallest symptom of any disturbance appeared. The unhappy convict was composed and firm, and appeared resigned to his fate. A Clergyman attended and prayed with him at the place of execution. Young himself addressed a few words to the spectators expressive of his dying in peace with his God, and with the world. The most profound silence reigned among the spectators on this awful occasion, and the scene was highly solemn [illegible] though from well known attachment of our fellow citizens to Law and order, we are convinced, that the apprehensions of the sheriff were groundless, still many thanks are due to the executive for his care and precaution on the occasion, and much praise is due to our Military Brethren who thus readily evinced themselves the supporters of the laws and government of their country.

August 25.

Late last night arrived the ship Severn, Captain Fairly, from Hull, which place she left on the 8th July, and brings London dates to the 5th; the principal articles they contain are as follows:

Second Mutiny in Lord Bridport's Fleet.

Three ships of Lord Bridport's fleet had returned to Spithead including five days subsequent to the EXECUTION of PARKER the delegate, in a state of mutiny, one of which was the Marlborough, of 74 guns, Capt. Eaton; the remainder of the Fleet is in sight, and expected all in, in the same state.

Capt. Eaton, commander of the Marlborough, went up to London with despatches from the ships in mutiny to Earl Spencer, and while waiting for an answer at the admiralty house, from some unknown cause, stabbed himself and immediately expired.

Arrival of Lord Malmesbury at Lisle.

His Lordship has been received at Lisle with great pomp; and three commissioners appointed by the Directory of France to treat for a SEPARATE PEACE (which the British Government had assented to) between that Republic and Great-Britain. The credentials of Lord Malmesbury commences with an acknowledgement of the Republic on the part of Great-Britain.

Richard Parker, the Delegate, was executed on Friday, June 30, on board the Sandwich man of war, at Black Stakes, near Sheerness; on which occasion he behaved with manly fortitude.

The mutiny on board the fleet at the Nore, is entirely quelled.

MONARCHICAL PRESENT.

Accounts from Moscow of May 20, mention that the Russian troops have returned from Persia. On the day of coronation, the new Emperor distributed 8180 heads of peasants, that is at the least 50,000 human beings, among his courtiers. The number of those who received favours from the Russian majesty amounted to 672 individuals, some having received estates, and others being promoted to a higher rank, or honoured with a ribband, or recompensed with a sum of money, or with a certain number of peasants. The 50,000 imperial slaves were considered as barely valuable enough to reward about one hundred imperial favorites for the trouble of assisting at the ceremonies of the coronation. Lieutenant General Strandman and the privy councellors Bibikof, Truberkoy and Wlasemkoy, &c. &c. received 800 peasants each. The councellors of state Krook, Cherashow, &c. 600 each. Vice Admiral Mordwinow 1600: major-general baron de Ferro 300; Dolinkoy 288; Italinskoy 322; the councellor of state Hablisk 250 peasants, &c. &c.

A letter, dated Philadelphia, August 22, at noon says "the fever grows more alarming."

ALBANY, August 18.

At a dinner given in Paris, by the remaining Deputies, to the new third, and to those who went out by rotation, there were eight hundred covers laid in the spacious hall of the new Republican Hotel, which is called Odeon, in imitation of the Greeks. Massena, Kleber, Jourdan, Mermet, Colonel, Rouget-Delille, the Tyrtæus of the French armies, and many other officers, and men of learning, assisted at the festival.

The emotions which the toast, "The Deliverers of Italy," excited in the breast of a beautiful young lady, were so strikingly expressive, that the attention of the whole company was at the same moment attracted upon her. The report, that she was not only a native of Milan, but the daughter of the Philanthropic Beccaria, spread like lightning thro' the hall, and all the guests thronged nearer, and offered wreaths of flowers to the fair republican, which she accepted with as much graciousness as modesty.

[Hamburgh paper.]

Late European Intelligence.

AMSTERDAM, June 7.

A CIRCUMSTANCE favourable to our commerce is, that several ships, richly laden from America, entered the ports of the Republic a few days ago. They could hardly have escaped the vigilance of the English fleet, if the latter had been still at sea.

PARIS, June 9.

Poule, the assassin of Sieyes, has been tried by the criminal tribunal of the Siene. After Sieyes and the other witnesses had been examined—the following questions were put to the jury:

Question. Has an attack been made on the person of the representative Sieyes, with a pistol?

Answer of the jury. Yes.

Q. Is Poule convicted of having made that attack?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he make it intentionally?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he make this attack, without the necessity of lawfully defending himself or another?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he make it in consequence of a violent provocation?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he commit the fact with premeditation?

A. No.

Q. Did he do it with intent to kill?

A. Yes.

Poule was therefore convicted—condemned to twenty years imprisonment and six hours pillory.

[The foregoing furnishes a specimen of the mode of finding a verdict in France. It differs from the general verdict of the English, but comprehends, in a concise form, the essential articles of a special verdict. The questions put to the jury contain also the distinctions necessary to define murder and manslaughter, precisely as laid down in the common law of England and the United States; distinctions which, being founded in reason, are applicable equally to all nations.]

June 21.

L'Eclair says—"One disorder brings on another. The club of Jacobins engenders the club of Monarchists. We shall have in a short time, if the Government does not take care, Vendean Republicans and Vendean Royalists.—In a word, a civil war is at our doors. The truth must be told: if this new misfortune is to succeed to all the revolution has brought forth, we shall be indebted for it to the weakness of our Governors, who know no more how to govern according to the laws than against the laws"

LONDON, June 25.

Yesterday a Cabinet Council was held at Lord Grenville's Office, on the subject of the Answer received from the French Directory, explaining the objectionable phrase "of Separate Peace," in their former Note. The explanation is deemed satisfactory, and every impediment to an immediate Negociation for Peace has been removed. On the breaking up of the Council at Three o'Clock, a Messenger was despatched to Windsor, and another to Lord Malmesbury, at Henley, requiring his return to Town.

We have the satisfaction to know, that let the Negociation take what turn it may, there are at least very solid hopes, at its commencement, that it will be brought to an amicable conclusion.—M. Barthelemy has certainly written a letter to Lord Grenville in the most friendly terms, expressing his wish for the return of Peace; and the despatches received on Tuesday night contained a passport for our Embassy. The story propagated through the Paris Papers, that the Directory did not think it necessary that any person should come to Paris until the basis of the negociation was agreed upon, is wholly void of foundation.—No such stipulation was ever under consideration.

June 26.

Lord Malmesbury, Minister Plenipotentiary, Mr. Charles Ellis, Secretary of Embassy; Lordson Gower, Morpeth and Pembroke; Assistant Secretaries; and Mr. James Ross, Private Secretary, will set off for France on Friday next, if Lord Malmesbury should by that time have sufficiently recovered his health for the journey.—The Commissioners on both sides will probably make their public entry into Lisle by the two opposite gates on Monday or Tuesday next.

A Cabinet Council met this day, at one o'clock, on the business.

Lord Malmesbury, we are happy to say, is much recovered from his late indisposition.—He sets out on Friday for Lisle. Mr. Ellis, who accompanied him upon his Embassy to Paris, attends him also upon the present mission.

The prevalent ornament amongst our fashionable females is a small lock and key suspended by gold chains from the centre of their girdles;—this is a system of monopoly, we can by no means approve of. Let them have the locks with all our spirit, but leave the keys for more appropriate wearers.

Mr. Baldwin of Prescott has adopted a steam-engine to the rowing of the vessels on smooth water. An experiment was lately made on the Surrey canal, when a vessel heavily laden was moved with greater rapidity than could be effected by hawlers or rowers, through the simple agency of this steam engine the owners performing eighteen strokes in a minute. The invention promises to be highly beneficial to inland navigation.

It is with much pleasure we announce the ratification of a new Treaty of Amity and Commerce between Russia and Great Britain. This important paper was brought to England by Majistre, the Messenger, who arrived some days ago in London from Petersburg. By Gentlemen who had an opportunity of examining its contents, we are assured, that this Treaty is the most advantageous for Great Britain ever concluded between the two countries.—This is a convincing proof of the friendly disposition of the Emperor of Russia towards England.

SUPPRESSION OF THE MUTINY.

June 29.

In consequence of the decisive measures adopted by the Government, for suppressing the mutiny on board the ships, at Sheerness, &c. the loyal parts of the crews began to exert themselves; and in a few days, the ships were delivered up to the officers; and the crews surrendered at discretion.

Order being instantly restored, the ringleaders of the mutiny were taken into custody; and RICHARD PARKER, who styled himself President of the Delegates, was ordered for immediate trial. The Court-Martial sat the 23d June, on board the Neptune, of 98 guns. Admiral PASLEY presided.—After a trial of four days, the prisoner was called on for his defence; which he read. In this defence, he commented on the evidence against him; and endeavoured to prove, "that his conduct had been in no instance, disrespectful to Admiral Buckner, the Commander of the squadron;—that he accepted the Presidency of the Directory, to check the progress of the bad spirit which prevailed on board the fleet;—that he had endeavoured to prevent the effusion of blood;—that he could not be accused of Disloyalty to his King and Country; and proved, that the tunes always played round the ships, were, "God save the King" "Rule Britannia," and "Britons strike home"—That as a mark of loyalty, when Lord Northesk came on board the Sandwich, he ordered the band to strike up, "God save the King."—That in a letter to his Lordship, he informed him,—"That an oath had been taken by the Delegates of the fleet, that they have never any communication with Jacobins and traitors;"—That on board the ships, besides the music, that they expressed their veneration for their Sovereign; and that they had been heard to say, that if there was a certainty that the enemy's fleet was at sea, they would take the fleet under their protection, and go in quest of them; and that if the Dutch fleet were in the Texel, he, (Parker) would lead the fleet in and attack them, to prove to the nation that they were neither rebels nor traitors;—That on loyal days, the standard was hoisted at the mizen, &c."

After he called his evidence, the Court was cleared at one o'clock, and at four he was recalled into Court, and the following sentence was awarded against him:

SENTENCE OF THE COURT.

"That a Court Martial, of the Gentlemen whose names we have already mentioned, had assembled on Thursday the 22d inst. on board his Majesty's ship Neptune, and sat till Monday the 26 h inst. inclusive, in pursuance of an order of the Lords Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of England, for the trial of Richard Parker, on various charges of having excited a dangerous mutiny on board the Sandwich, and others of his Majesty's ships at the Nore, under the command of Vice Admiral Buckner, of disobedience of the orders of his officers, and of contempt to his superiors. That the Court had proceeded to try the said Richard Parker; and having heard the evidence adduced in support of the charges, and also that advanced by the Prisoner in his defence, are of opinion, and do adjudge, that the whole of the charges have been fully proved; in consequence of which, and in consideration of the enormity of the crimes so proved, as unprecedented in their nature, as wicked in their tendency, and as ruinous to the naval strength as to the peace and safety of the country, the Court adjudges the said Richard Parker to suffer death, and to be hanged by the neck, on board any one of his Majesty's ships, and at such time as the Lords of the Admiralty may think proper to appoint; and he is hereby adjudged to suffer death accordingly."

Parker, the Prisoner, with a degree of fortitude and undismayed composure, which excited the astonishment and admiration of every one, spoke as follows:—

"I bow to your sentence with all due submission, being convinced I have acted from the dictates of a good conscience.—God, who knows the hearts of all men, will, I hope, receive me. I hope that my death alone will atone for the country: and that those brave men who have acted with me, will receive a general pardon: I am satisfied, they will all return to their duty with alacrity."

President. It is in the breast of the Court, to order you for execution immediately; but we think it better, to give you time to repent your crime.

Prisoner. I return you my thanks for the indulgence.

The warrant for the execution of Parker, the mutineer, was yesterday signed by the Lords of the Admiralty. Friday next, between the hours of 11 and 1 o'clock, is said to be the time for carrying into effect the awful sentence of the court martial.

The order went down yesterday from Admiralty for the execution of Johnson and Ashley, for mutiny on board the Pompee—they were to be executed this day.

June 28.

A commercial intercourse is, in some degree already opened between England and the French Republic, and considerable goods have recently been shipped for France, without interruption from the government of either country.

The Batavian Constitution is at length completed, and will be speedily presented for the acceptance of the people. It is still more democratic than the French.

Admiral Duncan's fleet on the 21st inst. was at anchor off the mouth of the Texel.

An American ship ——, Pierepont, master, is taken and carried into Nantes.—She is valued at 100,000l.

The debates in the Council of Five Hundred on the subject of finances were revived on the 19th instant, and conducted with such heat, that the members, in their anxiety to mount the tribune, collared one another, and tore off their shirts and clothes. The motion which gave rise to this discussion, was to repeal the restrictions imposed on the Directory, by the late resolutions of Gilbert Delmoliere. On this motion the Council passed to the order of the day.

In the sitting of the 20th inst. Pastoret, called the attention of the Council to the political situation of France and the United States of America.—Adverting to the treaty of 1778 he professed himself unable to conceive how the Directory could issue the order of the 2d March last, which was equivalent to a declaration of war. "What" said Pastoret, "have been the acts of hostility which have provoked this order? I admit that the Commercial Treaty in 1794 between Washington and England, may give rise to some suspicions respecting the United States; but these are not sufficient to justify a violation of the Constitution." The Orator concluded by moving for a Message to the Directory, requiring an account of the political situation of France considered in relation to the United States, and that all the orders of the Directory be sent to the Committee appointed to consider how far the Legislative Body can annul the orders of the Executive Body. Those Resolutions were, with some alterations, as to the Committee and the order of proceeding, adopted, and the Speech of Pastoret, was ordered to be printed.

PHILADELPHIA, August 19.

In the ship Adriana, Captain Lee, arrived here last evening from Bristol, came passenger that illustrious defender of the rights of mankind, the brave but unfortunate KOSCIUSKO, the Polish General, accompanied by two Polish gentlemen. On the arrival of the ship at the fort, the commander of the garrison being informed that the veteran General was on board, welcomed him by a federal salute, and, when the vessel came to anchor in our harbor, the sailing master of the frigate had its barge manned with eight masters of vessels and waited on the General to take him on shore. On his landing, he was received with three cheers, and, as a further mark of popular respect for this great character, the citizens who were present insisted on drawing him to his lodgings.

The General appears to be in good spirits; but has suffered very materially from his wounds and inhuman imprisonment. We trust, however, he will long live to enjoy, on these peaceful shores, that liberty and happiness which he assisted in fighting for, but which he fought in vain to obtain for his native country.

The General speaks in the handsomest terms of the treatment which he has received from Capt. Lee during his voyage.

NEW-YORK, August 15.

We are happy to see proposals issued by the Rev. Mr. Holmes of Cambridge, for publishing the life of Dr. Stiles, late President of Yale College. The life of so eminent a man must furnish many curious particulars, and in the hands of so able and impartial a character as Mr. Holmes, they cannot fail to be rendered valuable and interesting.

Mr. John Fenno, editor and proprietor of the Gazette of the United States, has obtained a Copy-right of a book, entitled, "Observations on certain documents contained in No. V. and VI. of "The History of the United States for the year 1796," in which the charge of speculation, against Alexander Hamilton, late Secretary of the Treasury, is fully refuted —— Written by himself."

August 18.

Yesterday morning between the hours of 11 and 12, John Young who was sentenced to death for the murder of Robert Berwick, one of the deputy sheriff's, was executed pursuant to his sentence. The sheriff of the city on account of some anonimous letters which he had received, having expressed to the executive an apprehension of a rescue, a detachment of the militia were under arms on the occasion—The magistrates of the city were also attending at a house adjacent to the place of execution—But though the crowd of spectators was immense; not the smallest symptom of any disturbance appeared. The unhappy convict was composed and firm, and appeared resigned to his fate. A Clergyman attended and prayed with him at the place of execution. Young himself addressed a few words to the spectators expressive of his dying in peace with his God, and with the world. The most profound silence reigned among the spectators on this awful occasion, and the scene was highly solemn [illegible] though from well known attachment of our fellow citizens to Law and order, we are convinced, that the apprehensions of the sheriff were groundless, still many thanks are due to the executive for his care and precaution on the occasion, and much praise is due to our Military Brethren who thus readily evinced themselves the supporters of the laws and government of their country.

August 25.

Late last night arrived the ship Severn, Captain Fairly, from Hull, which place she left on the 8th July, and brings London dates to the 5th; the principal articles they contain are as follows:

Second Mutiny in Lord Bridport's Fleet.

Three ships of Lord Bridport's fleet had returned to Spithead [illegible] days subsequent to the EXECUTION of PARKER the delegate, in a state of mutiny, one of which was the Marlborough, of 74 guns; Capt. Eaton; the remainder of the Fleet is in sight, and expected all in, in the same state.

Capt. Eaton, commander of the Marlborough, went up to London with despatches from the ships in munity to Earl Spencer, and while waiting for an answer at the admiralty house, from some unknown cause, stabbed himself and immediately expired.

Arrival of Lord Malmesbury at Lisle.

His Lordship has been received at Lisle with great pomp; and three commissioners appointed by the Directory of France to treat for a SEPARATE PEACE (which the British Government had assented to) between that Republic and Great-Britain. The credentials of Lord Malmesbury commences with an acknowledgement of the Republic on the part of Great-Britain.

Richard Parker, the Delegate, was executed on Friday, June 30, on board the Sandwich man of war, at Black Stakes, near Sheerness; on which occasion he behaved with manly fortitude.

The mutiny on board the fleet at the Nore, is entirely quelled.

MONARCHICAL PRESENT.

Accounts from Moscow of May 20, mention that the Russian troops have returned from Persia. On the day of coronation, the new Emperor distributed 8180 heads of peasants, that is at the least 50,000 human beings, among his courtiers. The number of those who received favours from the Russian majesty amounted to 672 individuals, some having received estates, and others being promoted to a higher rank, or honoured with a ribband, or recompensed with a sum of money, or with a certain number of peasants. The 50,000 imperial slaves were considered as barely valuable enough to reward about one hundred imperial favorites for the trouble of assisting at the ceremonies of the coronation. Lieutenant General Strandman and the privy councellors Bibikof, Truberkoy and Wlasemkoy, &c. &c. received 800 peasants each. The counsellors of state Krook, Cherashow, &c. 600 each. Vice Admiral Mordwinow 1000: major-general baron de Ferro 300; Dolinkoy 288; Italinskoy 322; the councellor of state Hablak 250 peasants, &c. &c.

A letter, dated Philadelphia, August 22, at noon says "the fever grows more alarming."

ALBANY, August 28.

At a dinner given in Paris, by the remaining Deputies, to the new third, and to those who went out by rotation, there were eight hundred covers laid in the spacious hall of the new Republican Hotel, which is called Odeon, in imitation of the Greeks. Massena, Kleber, Jourdan, Mermet, Colonel, Rouget-Delille, the Tyrtæus of the French armies, and many other officers, and men of learning, assisted at the festival.

The emotions which the toast, "The Deliverers of Italy," excited in the breast of a beautiful young lady, were so strikingly expressive, that the attention of the whole company was at the same moment attracted upon her. The report, that she was not only a native of Milan, but the daughter of the Philanthropic Beccaria, spread like lightning thro' the hall, and all the guests thronged nearer, and offered wreaths of flowers to the fair republican, which she accepted with as much graciousness as modesty.

[Hamburgh paper.]

August 28:

The [illegible] in this town, it is said, were never more pregnant in cash, than they are at this time.

Damages by lightning have not been more numerous for many summers past, than they have this season, in several parts.

Northborough, August 8. 1797.

As Mr. Parker Hopkinson, of Rochester, in the State of New-Hampshire (aged 25 years, and whose parents live at Exeter) in a funky without a top; and Mr. Joshua Barnard, of Leicester, in a chaise, were passing the great road towards Worcester, about three-quarters of a mile from the meeting house in Northborough, they were arrested (on the 6 h inst. at a quarter before 11 o'clock, A. M.) by a flash of lightening from a cloud which came from the southwest, whereby Mr. Hopkinson and his horse were instantly killed. — He was thrown from his carriage; one foot was under one shaft, and the horse, partly, on that shaft. He held in his left hand, an umbrella to shelter him from the rain; this, probably, attracted the lightning, which tore off the whole covering of the umbrella, and reduced it to atoms, took out, or melted three of the wire-braces, broke the steel off about four inches from the top, threw the upper part some distance, the rest of the steel he had in his hand, and which lay across his breast when he was taken up. His hat was much torn, and thrown to a distance, on the other side of the way. His coat, waistcoat, shirt, and neck-cloth, were torn to pieces, and one button of his coat partly melted. A small wound was made only through the skin, just above the right eyebrow, probably by the fall, from which, and from his ears and nose, blood issued plentifully. The skin upon his breast and left side was blistered. His left elbow, which rested on the side of the turkey, conveyed the lightning to that, which rent the cloth; but no other damage was done to the carriage.

Mr. Barnard, above named, at the distance of four rods behind, was thrown out of his chaise, and his horse struck down; but both soon recovered. He was not sensible of seeing the lightning, or of hearing the thunder.

Mr. Levi Barnard of Northborough, with a young lady in a chaise, coming to the public worship, had just passed these two carriages, and, at the distance of nearly twenty rods from the man killed, received the last of the shock. They both saw distinctly, a ball of fire under their horse's feet, and heard the thunder; — their horse fell, but was not hurt. The sulphureous effluvia, round the dead man, were peculiarly offensive to those who first came to, and removed the corpse.

Yesterday the remains of Mr. Hopkinson were interred at Northborough; a large concourse of people, from all the neighbouring towns, shewed their respect to a stranger, by attending the funeral solemnity. — Not a relative could attend, by reason of their great distance; but two gentlemen from Boston, of his particular acquaintance, being notified of his death, arrived in time to walk as mourners.

---

[Inserted by Request]

From the PROVIDENCE GAZETTE, of Aug. 26.

Messrs. CARTER & WILKINSON,

THOUGH I have no reason to distrust the integrity of Judge TILLINGHAST, I shall not give him my vote, for the following reasons:

1st. From the circumstances which preceded and accompanied the nomination of him. I cannot suppose that it was made from respect to his character or qualifications, but from a determination to set up somebody, and from a spirit of party and opposition, of which both he and the electors are intended to be the dupes.

2d. From the reputation for cunning which certain persons who direct this party possess, I suspect that it was raised with a view to effect some selfish and ambitious purpose, which I am not politician enough to discover, rather than with general and public-spirited intentions.

3. Because, as certain lying, dependent and fawning characters appear to be most busy in the under parts of the farce, I am afraid that this purpose will partake of the characteristics of its abettors, and terminate in no good.

4 From the hatred which the characters aforesaid, and their letters on, appear to bear towards Mr. BURRILL, I conclude that he is a different sort of a man; that he is no friend to their persons or their measures; that probably he has detected them in some of their tricks, and has no exalted opinion of their patriotism or integrity.

5th. Because when the character of a gentleman is traduced in a vague, indeterminate, covert and cowardly manner, and in anonymous publications, so that he can know neither by whom nor of what he is accused; I immediately infer, that no specific charge can be fixed upon him.

6 h. Because this artifice has been uniformly employed by the Jacobins and disorganizers of America, France, Tennessee and Canada, and all their enemies of this country and its constitution, against the well approved and best friends of the genuine American people.

7 h. Because I entertain too great a respect for Mr. Tillinghast, to wish him the dupe of less worthy but more designing persons; the instrument of mischief which he never fails, or the prop of a tottering popularity which he is not to enjoy.

I have nothing to do with French or Spanish plots, though my name is

BLUNT.

---

To the FREEMEN of the Town of NEWPORT.

THIS DAY, fellow-citizens, you are to assemble on a very interesting occasion — to make an election for the most important office which is in your power to bestow. — The choice of a Representative in Congress, demands the serious attention of every individual voter, who feels an interest in the tranquility, happiness, and future prosperity of his country. — You who wish to see the blessings of a wise and virtuous policy prolonged, and the dignity of our national representation preserved, will THIS DAY give in your votes for

JAMES BURRILL, jun. Esq;

You will, fellow-citizens, on this occasion, recollect, that your choice is important, not only from the usual duties incidental to a seat in Congress, but is rendered peculiarly so at the present moment, by a variety of circumstances, affecting deeply the internal tranquility and external relations of the country — the existence of contending parties, of almost equal strength, in the bosom of the nation, and the menacing tone of foreign powers, demand that on this occasion you lay aside all private feuds and local prejudices, and unite in favour of a man of genuine principles, and decided character, whose attachment to his own native country shall be paramount to all private interest or foreign influence. Such circumstances demand, that you should come forward and declare, that a man of doubtful or perhaps antifederal principles shall not disgrace your councils, and trifle with your interests.

Apply these precautions to the political characters of the two candidates in question, and you will find ample cause for leaving all other business This Day, and resolving to stand by your own country, in voting unanimously for Mr. BURRILL.

A FREEMAN.

Newport, August 29. 1797.

---

Mr. PRINTER,

Please to insert the following in your paper of this week

LAST Friday evening a brick bat was hurled with such force against a front window of a house in the back street as to break one of the sashes, and destroy seven panes of glass; — fortunately the window shutter was closed — A similar instance not long since took place in Broad-Street. — The authors of these crimes best know their motives. There are strong reasons to apprehend that the violence committed in Broad street was the result of deliberate malice. But be the motives which produced each of these actions what they might, it certainly behoves the perpetrators to consider the consequences of their conduct, — to consider that each Citizen has an undoubted claim upon the rest for the protection of his property and peace, — that the law contemplates dwelling houses, as castles, and has guarded them in the best manner they can be guarded, by the severity of punishment it inflicts upon the invaders of them, and that if persons should be permitted with impunity to gratify their mischievous or malicious dispositions, there would be no safety for property or life, — peace would be banished, and the town involved in disorder, tumult and blood.

The intention of this publication is not to induce reparation; for that is a slight consideration; — but to lead the sons of wantonness and malice to a consideration of the baseness and criminality of their conduct, hoping that this may produce conviction, and that every citizen may hereafter enjoy the peaceable and undisturbed possession of his habitation, and violence may be no more heard in this town.

Newport, August 28, 1797.

---

NEWPORT, August 29.

The Governor of Pennsylvania has issued a Proclamation directing a Quarantine of Ten Days, to be performed at the Fort by every Vessel from the West Indies, New Orleans, or from any British, French, Dutch or Spanish Port, on the Main, and for such longer Term as the resident Physician, with the Advice of the consulting Physician and the Inspectors of the Health Office shall prescribe.

In the Packet Aurora, Capt. J Cahoone, arrived here on Saturday last, from N. York, came Passenger his Excellency the Chevalier de YRUJO, Minister Plenipotentiary of his Catholic Majesty to the United States, on a Tour to Boston.

From a Correspondent.

On Friday Evening last Mrs. Rowson's justly admired Comedy of the Americans in England was performed for the first Time in this Town. In her Advertisement she acknowledged that on Account of the present reduced state of the Company she was under the Necessity of compressing it. I think such a Notice was unnecessary, as the Performance appeared in every Part to be sufficiently filled. Great Merit is due to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Harper, Mr. M'Kinzie, and Mrs. Rowson, who did ample Justice to their respective Parts. In one Circumstance Mrs. Rowson is highly commendable, as I believe it is the first Instance of a Play being brought forward on the Stage with the Character of a Quaker in it, where that respectable Body was not in some Measure burlesqued to Ridicule — this, very much to her Praise, she has avoided, and has placed her Quaker (Uzal Pratly) in a most respectable Light. His Language is plain, easy and familiar. Much could be said in praise of every other Character, but 'tis only my Wish that Merit should not go unnoticed.

---

A malignant Fever has made its Appearance in Philadelphia, and carried off 10 or 12 Persons in the Neighbourhood of Penn Street. New York has taken the Alarm, and the Governor has prohibited all Vessels coming from Philadelphia, from mooring at the Wharves until they shall have performed Quarantine.

MARRIED] — At Providence, Capt. ROBERT LILLIBRIDGE, of Philadelphia, to Miss CHARLOTTE SABIN, Daughter of Mr. Thomas Sabin.

— In this Town, Mr. WILLIAM HOWARD, of Gloucester, to Miss MERIBA AUSTIN, a very worthy young Woman.

DEATHS.

On Saturday last, JOHN GIBBS, the second Son of George Gibbs, of this Town, Merchant, in the Sixteenth Year of his Age, was suddenly killed by an unexpected Discharge of his Fowling Piece. The Contents piercing his Neck deprived him almost instantaneously of Life. — Lamentable instance of the instability of human Existence!!

His Character justly engaged universal Esteem, and endeared him to an extensive Acquaintance. — Of a warm and amiable Disposition, he was at once the fond Child the affectionate Brother, the cordial Friend, and sympathising advocate of the distressed. His general Conduct was strongly marked with that Enterprise, Fortitude and Generosity which characterize the great and good Man; while daily Improvements were preparing him for an active and useful Life — But, alas! in the Moment of Promise, in the very Bloom of his Love-liness and Worth, our Hopes were cut down as a Flower. — He sleeps in Death, and those, who knew and loved his early Virtues, in the Enthusiasm of Sorrow repine, that Elisha is not here to awake him — to "bid them come in and take up the Child."

2 Kings — IV. Chap.

— After a long and lingering Illness, Mrs. MARTHA TOWNSEND, Consort of Mr. JOB TOWNSEND, in the 38 h Year of her Age.

— At Portsmouth, Miss ABIGAIL LAWTON Daughter of Mr. GIDEON LAWTON, in the 21 t Year of her Age.

— At Providence, after a long Indisposition, Mrs. SARAH ALLEN, Consort of Major William Allen. — Miss ESTHER BROWN, Daughter of the late George Brown, Esq; — JAMES ARNOLD Esq; for many Years Town Treasurer of this Town; his Consort Mrs. MARY ARNOLD; his son Mr. JOSEPH ARNOLD; being the whole Family. — Mrs. WILLIAM FIELDINGHAST — Mrs. MITCHELL — Mrs. GOSS — Mr. REUBEN POTTER.

— At Lanesborough (N. York) Mrs. MERCY REMINGTON (late of Providence) Consort of Col. Jonathan Remington.

---

CUSTOM-HOUSE,

District of Newport, August 28.

ENTERED, from

Ship Tanner, Macy, London
Brig Eunice, Allin, St. Croix
— Greenwich, Landers, Havanna
Sloop Harriet, Cartee, Snow Hill
— Nancy, Allin, New York
— Concord, Cahoone, Ditto
— Quicksime, Cleveland, Ditto
— Aurora, Cahoone, Ditto
— Endeavour, Bicknell, Ditto

CLEARED, for

Sloop Eagle, Earl, Boston
— Fame, Bliss, New York
— Harriet, Northam, Charleston
— Zoar, Crane, New York
Brig Ruth, Townsend, Cape Francois
— Polly, Clarke, Bath

---

ON LEASE.

TO be LET, a valuable FARM, near the Town of Newport, whereon is every necessary Building, with a small Orchard, and a Privilege of procuring Plenty of Sea-Weed of the first Quality, besides what is thrown upon the Shore of the Premises. — For further Particulars inquire of the Printer.

Newport, August 28, 1797.

---

For CHARLESTON (S. C)

The SHIP MARIA,

ROBERT SHEFFIELD, MASTER;

Will positively leave New York the 10th of next Month. — She has very elegant Accommodations, sails fast, and is intended as a regular Packet. — The Care, Prudence, and Knowledge, of Capt. Sheffield is well known. — For Freight or Passage, apply to BUCKLEY & UNDERHILL, New-York — or

WM. T. SLOCUM,

8th Month 28th. 1797. (Newport)

---

THE Situation of the Affairs of ROBERT LAWTON, of Newport, is such, as to render it necessary to give up his Estate into the Hands of his Creditors for the Payment of his Debts, which he has accordingly done. — This is therefore to notify all Persons, who have any Demands against the said ROBERT LAWTON, that they exhibit the same to the Subscriber in New York, or to THOMAS ROBINSON in Newport, that a Dividend may be made of his Effects among his Creditors.

THOMAS PEARSALL.

New York 15th of the 8th Month, 1797.

---

The LAST BENEFIT.

THEATRE,

NEWPORT.

Mrs. MARSHALL's Night.

To-morrow Evening, August 30,

Will be presented,

A favourite COMEDY, in four ACTS, (translated from the French of the Comedie de Genris). — Called,

The Child of Nature.

| | |
|---|---|
| Marquis Almanza, | Mr. Marshall |
| Duke Medina, | J. Jones |
| Peasant, | Rowson |
| Seville, | M'Kenzie |
| Granada, | Keteltas |
| Count Valentia, | Harper |
| Marchioness Merida, | Mrs. Rowson |
| Female Attendant, | Kenna |
| Amanthis (the Child of Nature) | Marshall |

SERVANTS, PEASANTS, &c.

End of the Play, POOR JACK, — the Sweet little Cherub — no compliment Song of DIBDEN's. — By Mr. MARSHALL.

To which will be added, the favourite Musical FARCE of

The PADLOCK.

| | |
|---|---|
| Don Diego, | Mr. Rowson |
| Leander (with additional Songs) | Marshall |
| Scholars, | Mess. Kenna, & M'Kenzie |
| Mungo, | Harper |
| Ursula, | Mrs. Rowson |
| Leonora, | Marshall |

Tickets and Places in the Boxes, to be had at the Box Office, under the Theatre, on the Days of Performance, from 9 o'Clock, P. M. 'till the Curtain rises.

---

THE Subscriber, intending to leave this Town and State this Fall, (perhaps for several Years) desires all Persons who have any Demands on him, to call and receive their Pay; — and all those indebted to him, are requested to call and settle, by paying the Money, or giving good Security. —

As a Number of Gulf men are indebted to him, for whom he has a particular Friendship, he thinks it would be for their Interest to settle with him, in Presence to an Attorney — in whose Hands he shall leave all Business that may remain unsettled, when he leaves the Place.

ETHAN CLARKE.

Newport, August 28 1797

---

THE Subscribers, Commissioners appointed by the Town-Council of Newport, to receive and examine the Claims of the Creditors of ELIZABETH WHITFIELD late of Newport, deceased, represented Insolvent; and as the Time is expired, in which we were to adjust said Claims, the said Town Council have allowed us Six Months longer to finish said Business; — These are therefore to notify all Persons, who have any Demands against said Estate, to bring them to either of us, for the Purpose aforesaid.

SAMUEL VINSON,
JOSEPH TILLINGHAST,

Newport, August 7, 1797.

And all Persons indebted to said Estate are desired to make immediate Payment to

JONATHAN EASTON, Administrator.
SARAH PERRY, Administratrix.

---

ALL Persons having Demands against the Estate of DANIEL PECKHAM, late of Middletown, deceased, are requested to exhibit them to the Assignees, appointed to adjust and settle the same by Agreement of the Heirs, at his late Dwelling in Middletown, on Wednesday Afternoon next and Thursday following, when will then and there attend the same; that the Demands may be speedily paid, and the Affair immediately settled.

PAUL MUMFORD,
OLIVER DURFEE,
THOMAS MANCHESTER
JOSEPH CORNELL, } Assignees.

August 28 1797

---

Cognac Brandy.

PROOF the 4 th [illegible] equal to [illegible] favourable [illegible] Cask [illegible] less guarantee — [illegible] the Territories [illegible] courts back and Canton [illegible], Nice, Savoy, Vintage of 1791, just [illegible] on the frontier, [illegible] Joseph [illegible] of Belgium, [illegible] Bourdeaux — and to be put part by SAMUEL VERNON, jun. [illegible]

TO be Sold, by WILLIAM P [illegible] be treated for [illegible] of South Kingstown, a [illegible] RE with a Horse Cart [illegible] as the Stock [illegible] Peck [illegible] HORSE, and three Years old [illegible] For Terms apply to [illegible] Paun, Capt. [illegible] Dion of four [illegible] boat the Eagle [illegible]

Was too late for this Day

August 28.

The [illegible] in this town, it is said, were never more pregnant in cash, than they are at this time.

Damages by lightning have not been more numerous for many summers past, than they have this season, in several parts.

Northborough, August 8. 1797.

As Mr. Parker Hopkinson, of Rochester, in the State of New-Hampshire (aged 25 years, and whose parents live at Exeter) in a sulky without a top; and Mr. Joshua Barnard, of Leicester, in a chaise, were passing the great road towards Worcester, about three-quarters of a mile from the meeting house in Northborough, they were arrested (on the 6th inst. at a quarter before 11 o'clock, A. M.) by a flash of lightening from a cloud which came from the southwest, whereby Mr. Hopkinson and his horse were instantly killed.—He was thrown from his carriage; one foot was under one shaft, and the horse, partly, on that shaft. He held in his left hand, an umbrella to shelter him from the rain; this, probably, attracted the lightning, which tore off the whole covering of the umbrella, and rent it to atoms, took out, or melted three of the wire-braces, broke the steel off about four inches from the top, threw the upper part some distance, the rest of the steel he had in his hand, and which lay across his breast when he was taken up. His hat was much torn, and thrown to a distance, on the other side of the way. His coat, waistcoat, shirt, and neck-cloth, were torn to pieces, and one button of his coat partly melted. A small wound was made only through the skin, just above the right eyebrow, probably by the fall, from which, and from his ears and nose, blood issued plentifully. The skin upon his breast and left side was blistered. His left elbow, which rested on the side of the sulkey, conveyed the lightning to that, which rent the cloth; but no other damage was done to the carriage.

Mr. Barnard, above named, at the distance of four rods behind, was thrown out of his chaise, and his horse struck down; but both soon recovered. He was not sensible of seeing the lightning, or of hearing the thunder.

Mr. Levi Barnard of Northborough, with a young lady in a chaise, coming to the public worship, had just passed these two carriages, and, at the distance of nearly twenty rods from the man killed, received the last of the shock. They both saw distinctly, a ball of fire under their horse's feet, and heard the thunder;—their horse fell, but was not hurt. The sulphureous effluvia, round the dead man, were peculiarly offensive to those who first came to, and removed the corpse.

Yesterday the remains of Mr. Hopkinson were interred at Northborough; a large concourse of people, from all the neighbouring towns, shewed their respect to a stranger, by attending the funeral solemnity.—Not a relative could attend, by reason of their great distance; but two gentlemen from Boston, of his particular acquaintance, being notified of his death, arrived in time to walk as mourners.

---

[Inserted by Request]

From the PROVIDENCE GAZETTE, of Aug. 26.

Messrs. CARTER & WILKINSON,

THOUGH I have no reason to distrust the integrity of Judge TILLINGHAST, I shall not give him my vote, for the following reasons:

1st. From the circumstances which preceded and accompanied the nomination of him, I cannot suppose that it was made from respect to his character or qualifications, but from a determination to set up somebody, and from a spirit of party and opposition, of which both he and the electors are intended to be the dupes.

2d. From the reputation for cunning which certain persons who direct this party possess, I suspect that it was raised with a view to effect some selfish and ambitious purpose, which I am not politician enough to discover, rather than with general and public-spirited intentions.

3. Because, as certain lying, dependent and rat-catching characters appear to be most busy in the under parts of the farce, I am afraid that this purpose will partake of the characteristics of its abettors, and terminate in no good.

4. From the hatred which the characters aforesaid, and their letters on, appear to bear towards Mr. BURRILL, I conclude that he is a different sort of a man; that he is no friend to their persons or their measures; that probably he has detected them in some of their tricks, and has no exalted opinion of their patriotism or integrity.

5th. Because when the character of a gentleman is traduced in a vague, indeterminate, covert and cowardly manner, and in anonymous publications, so that he can know neither by whom nor of what he is accused; I immediately infer, that no specific charge can be fixed upon him.

6th. Because this artifice has been uniformly employed by the Jacobins and disorganizers of America, France, Tennessee and Canada, and all their enemies of this country and its constitution, against the well approved and best friends of the genuine American people.

7th. Because I entertain too great a respect for Mr. Tillinghast, to wish him the dupe of less worthy but more designing persons; the instrument of malice which he never felt, or the prop of a tottering popularity which he is not to enjoy.

I have nothing to do with French or Spanish plots, though my name is

BLUNT.

---

To the FREEMEN of the Town of NEWPORT.

THIS DAY, fellow-citizens, you are to assemble on a very interesting occasion—to make an election for the most important office which is in your power to bestow.—The choice of a Representative in Congress, demands the serious attention of every individual voter, who feels an interest in the tranquility, happiness, and future prosperity of his country.—You who wish to see the blessings of a wise and virtuous policy prolonged, and the dignity of our national representation preserved, will THIS DAY give in your votes for

JAMES BURRILL, jun. Esq;

You will, fellow-citizens, on this occasion, recollect, that your choice is important, not only from the usual duties incidental to a seat in Congress, but is rendered peculiarly so at the present moment, by a variety of circumstances, affecting deeply the internal tranquility and external relations of the country—the existence of contending parties, of almost equal strength, in the bosom of the nation, and the menacing tone of foreign powers, demand that on this occasion you lay aside all private feuds and local prejudices, and unite in favour of a man of genuine principles, and decided character, whose attachment to his own native country shall be paramount to all private interest or foreign influence. Such circumstances demand, that you should come forward and declare, that a man of doubtful or perhaps antifederal principles shall not disgrace your councils, and trifle with your interests.

Apply these precautions to the political characters of the two candidates in question, and you will find ample cause for leaving all other business This Day, and resolving to stand by your own country, in voting unanimously for Mr. BURRILL.

A FREEMAN.

Newport, August 29. 1797.

---

Mr. BARBER,

Please to insert the following in your paper of this week

LAST Friday evening a brick bat was hurled with such force against a front window of a house in the back street as to break one of the sashes, and destroy seven panes of glass;—fortunately the window shutter was closed.—A similar instance not long since took place in Broad-street.—The authors of these crimes best know their motives. There are strong reasons to apprehend that the violence committed in Broad street was the result of deliberate malice. But be the motives which produced each of these actions what they might, it certainly behoves the perpetrators to consider the consequences of their conduct,—to consider that each Citizen has an undoubted claim upon the rest for the protection of his property and peace,—that the law contemplates dwelling houses, as castles, and has guarded them in the best manner they can be guarded, by the severity of punishment it inflicts upon the invaders of them, and that if persons should be permitted with impunity to gratify their mischievous or malicious dispositions, there would be no safety for property or life,—peace would be banished, and the town involved in disorder, tumult and blood.

The intention of this publication is not to induce reparation; for that is a slight consideration;—but to lead the sons of wantonness and malice to a consideration of the baseness and criminality of their conduct, hoping that this may produce conviction, and that every citizen may hereafter enjoy the peaceable and undisturbed possession of his habitation, and violence may be no more heard in this town.

Newport, August 28, 1797.

---

NEWPORT, August 29.

The Governor of Pennsylvania has issued a Proclamation directing a Quarantine of Ten Days, to be performed at the Fort by every Vessel from the West Indies, New Orleans, or from any British, French, Dutch or Spanish Port, on the Main, and for such longer Term as the resident Physician, with the Advice of the consulting Physician and the Inspectors of the Health Office shall prescribe.

In the Packet Aurora, Capt. J. Cahoone, arrived here on Saturday last, from N. York, came Passenger his Excellency the Chevalier de YRUJO, Minister Plenipotentiary of his Catholic Majesty to the United States, on a Tour to Boston.

From a Correspondent.

On Friday Evening last Mrs. Rowson's justly admired Comedy of the Americans in England was performed for the first Time in this Town. In her Advertisement she acknowledged that on Account of the present reduced State of the Company she was under the Necessity of compressing it. I think such a Notice was unnecessary, as the Performance appeared in every Part to be sufficiently filled. Great Merit is due to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Harper, Mr. M'Kinzie, and Mrs. Rowlon, who did ample Justice to their respective Parts. In one Circumstance Mrs. Rowlon is highly commendable, as I believe it is the first Instance of a Play being brought forward on the Stage with the Character of a Quaker in it, where that respectable Body was not in some Measure turn'd into Ridicule—this, very much to her Praise, she has avoided, and has placed her Quaker (Ezekiel Plainly) in a most respectable Light. His Language is plain, easy and familiar. More could be said in praise of every other Character, but 'tis only my Wish that Merit should not go unnoticed.

---

A malignant Fever has made its Appearance in Philadelphia, and carried off 10 or 12 Persons in the Neighbourhood of Penn Street. New York has taken the Alarm, and the Governor has prohibited all Vessels coming from Philadelphia, from mooring at the Wharves until they shall have performed Quarantine.

MARRIED]—At Providence, Capt. ROBERT LILLIBRIDGE, of Philadelphia, to Miss CHARLOTTE SABIN, Daughter of Mr. Thomas Sabin.

—In this Town, Mr. WILLIAM HOWARD, of Gloucester, to Miss MERIBA AUSTIN, a very worthy young Woman.

DEATHS.

On Saturday last, JOHN GIBBS, the second Son of George Gibbs, of this Town, Merchant, in the Sixteenth Year of his Age, was suddenly killed by an unexpected Discharge of his Fowling Piece. The Contents piercing his Neck deprived him almost instantaneously of Life.—Lamentable instance of the instability of human Existence!!

His Character justly engaged universal Esteem, and endeared him to an extensive Acquaintance.—Of a warm and amiable Disposition, he was at once the fond Child the affectionate Brother, the cordial Friend, and sympathising Advocate of the distressed. His general Conduct was strongly marked with that Enterprise, Fortitude and Generosity which characterize the great and good Mind; while daily Improvements were preparing him for an active and useful Life—But, alas! in the Moment of Promise, in the very Bloom of his Loveliness and Worth, our Hopes were cut down as a Flower.—He sleeps in Death, and those, who knew and loved his early Virtues, in the Enthusiasm of Sorrow repine, that Elisha is not here to awake him—to "bid them come in and take up the Child."

2 Kings—IV. Chap.

—After a long and lingering Illness, Mrs. MARTHA TOWNSEND, Consort of Mr. JOB TOWNSEND, in the 38th Year of her Age.

—At Portsmouth, Miss ABIGAIL LAWTON, Daughter of Mr. GIDEON LAWTON, in the 21st Year of her Age.

—At Providence, after a long Indisposition, Mrs. SARAH ALLEN, Consort of Major William Allen.—Miss ESTHER BROWN, Daughter of the late George Brown, Esq;—JAMES ARNOLD Esq; for many Years Town Treasurer of that Town; his Consort Mrs. MARY ARNOLD; his Son Mr. JOSEPH ARNOLD; being the whole Family.—Mr. WILLIAM TILLINGHAST—Mrs. MITCHELL—Mrs. GOSS—Mr. REUBEN POTTER.

—At Lashingburg (N. York) Mrs. MERCY REMINGTON (late of Providence) Consort of Col. Jonathan Remington.

---

CUSTOM-HOUSE,

District of Newport, August 28.

| ENTERED, | from |
|---|---|
| Ship Tanner, Macy, | London |
| Brig Eunice, Allin, | St. Croix |
| —— Greenwich, Landers, | Havanna |
| Sloop Harriot, Cartee, | Snow Hill |
| —— Nancy, Allin, | New York |
| —— Concord, Cahoone, | Ditto |
| —— Quicktime, Cleveland, | Ditto |
| —— Aurora, Cahoone. | Ditto |
| —— Endeavour, Bleiken, | Ditto |
| CLEARED, | for |
| Sloop Eagle, Earl, | Boston |
| —— Fame, Bliss, | New York |
| —— Harriot, Northam, | Charleston |
| —— Zoar, Crane, | New York |
| Brig Ruth, Townsend, | Cape Francois |
| —— Polly, Clarke, | Bath |

---

ON LEASE.

TO be LET, a valuable FARM, near the Town of Newport, whereon is every necessary Building, with a small Orchard, and a Privilege of procuring Plenty of Sea-Weed of the first Quality, besides what is thrown upon the Shore of the Premises.—For further Particulars inquire of the Printer.

Newport, August 28, 1797.

---

For CHARLESTON (S. C)

The SHIP MARIA,

ROBERT SHEFFIELD, MASTER;

Will positively leave New York the 20th of next Month.—She has very elegant Accommodations, sails fast, and is intended as a regular Packet.—The Care, Prudence, and Knowledge, of Capt. Sheffield is well known.—For Freight or Passage, apply to BUCKLEY & UNDERHILL, New-York—or

WM. T. SLOCUM, [illegible]

8th Month 28th, 1797. (Newport

---

THE Situation of the Affairs of ROBERT LAWTON, of Newport, is such, as to render it necessary to give up his Estate into the Hands of his Creditors for the Payment of his Debts, which he has accordingly done.—This is therefore to notify all Persons, who have any Demands against the said ROBERT LAWTON, that they exhibit the same to the Subscriber in New York, or to THOMAS ROBINSON in Newport, that a Dividend may be made of his Estate among his Creditors.

THOMAS PEARSALL.

New York 15th of the 8th Month, 1797.

---

The LAST BENEFIT.

THEATRE,

NEWPORT.

Mrs. MARSHALL's Night.

To-morrow Evening, August 30,

Will be presented,

A favourite COMEDY, in four ACTS, (translated from the French of the Comte de Genlis).—Called,

The Child of Nature.

| | |
|---|---|
| Marquis Almanza, | Mr. Marshall |
| Duke Mercia, | J. Jones |
| Peasant, | Rowlon |
| Seville, | M'Kinzie |
| Granada, | Kenny |
| Count Valentia, | Harper |
| Marchioness Merida, | Mrs. Rowlon |
| Female Attendant, | Kenna |
| Amanthis (the Child of Nature) | Marshall |

SERVANTS, PEASANTS, &c.

End of the Play, POOR JACK,—or, the Sweet little Cherub—no admired Song of DIBDEN's.—By Mrs. MARSHALL.

To which will be added, the favourite Musical FARCE of

The PADLOCK.

| | |
|---|---|
| Don Diego, | Mr. Rowlon |
| Leander (with additional Songs) | Marshall |
| Scholars, | Messrs. Kenny & M'Kinzie |
| Mungo, | Harper |
| Ursula, | Mrs. Rowlon |
| Leonora, | Marshall |

Tickets and Places in the Boxes, to be had at the Box Office, under the Theatre, on the Days of Performance, from 3 o'Clock, P. M. 'till the Curtain rises.

---

THE Subscriber, intending to leave this Town and State this Fall, (perhaps for several Years) desires all Persons who have any Demands on him, to call and receive their Pay;—and all those indebted to him, are requested to call and settle, by paying the Money, or giving good Security.——

As a Number of Customers are indebted to him, for whom he has a particular Friendship, he thinks it would be for their Interest to settle with him, in Preference to an Attorney—in whose Hands he shall leave all Business that may remain unsettled, when he leaves the Place.

ETHAN CLARKE.

Newport, August 28 1797.

---

THE Subscribers, Commissioners appointed by the Town-Council of Newport, to receive and examine the Claims of the Creditors of ELIZABETH WHITFIELD late of Newport, deceased, represented Insolvent; and as the Time is expired, in which we were to adjust said Claims, the said Town Council have allowed us Six Months longer to finish said Business;—These are therefore to notify all Persons, who have any Demands against said Estate, to bring them to either of us, for the Purpose aforesaid.

SAMUEL VINSON,
JOSEPH TILLINGHAST.

Newport, August 7, 1797.

And all Persons indebted to said Estate are desired to make immediate Payment to

JONATHAN EASTON, Administrator.
SARAH PERRY Administratrix.

---

ALL Persons having Demands against the Estate of DANIEL PECKHAM, late of Middletown, deceased, are requested to exhibit them to the Assignees, appointed to adjust and settle the same by Agreement of the Heirs, at his late Dwelling in Middletown, on Wednesday Afternoon next and Thursday following, when will then and there attend the same; that the Demands may be speedily paid, and the Estate immediately settled.

PAUL MUMFORD,
OLIVER DURFEE,
THOMAS MANCHESTER } Assignees.
JOSEPH COGGESHALL,

August 28 1797.

---

Cognac Brandy.

PROOF the 4th [illegible] you equal to a [illegible] favourable a Cask [illegible] guarantee [illegible] all the Territories [illegible] course back and Canton Cognac, Nice [illegible] and Savoy, Vintage of 1791, just [illegible] on the frontier, [illegible] Brigantine Lucy, Joseph [illegible] on the other by SAMUEL VERNON, jun. [illegible] Belgi- [illegible] stored to [illegible] be part part [illegible] dependence [illegible] the treaty [illegible] Paris of [illegible] with a Horse Cart—as the sole [illegible] HORSE, and three Years head of mare [illegible] For Terms apply [illegible] Faun, Capt. [illegible] Pecklam [illegible] Piece signed [illegible] tion of four [illegible] was rid 100 Suits for this Day [illegible] boat the Eagle,

A GIANT THOUGHT.

From Mr PAINE'S POEM, (just published in Boston) entitled "THE RULING PASSION"

FROM foreign feud, and civil discord free,
As Columbia, may She ever be!
May Europe's Realms ne'er damp the generous flame,
Which warms each bosom for his country's fame!
Long roll between our shores the Atlantic tide;
Wide as our hem sphere, our laws divide!
And ah! and some earthquake, with more powerful vent,
Than that, which Dover's cliffs from Calais rent,
With prison'd force insurging Neptune's reign,
Convulse the deep foundations of the main,
'Till both the Continents, in nature's fright,
Cleft from their bases, totter to unite;
May FATE the clashing empires interverse,
And say, when Ocean sinks, an Alps between!

ANECDOTE.

SOme years since, a sober, zealous, Connecticut parson went to catechize a family in his parish, who were not so well versed in the rudiments of divinity as many are when arrived, he thought proper to begin with Lois, the eldest daughter, a girl about eighteen, and box in as May—whose charms had smitten the young village swains with an epidemick. "Well Lois," said the parson, "I shall begin with you"—"come tell me who died for you?"—Lois, with a charming flush in her cheek, replied—"why nobody as I know on."—The parson, rather surprized at her answer, repeated his question with increasing zeal—"Lois, I say, tell me who died for you?"—Poor Lois, rather irritated at the inquisitive parson, again replied why nobody, sir—there was Tom Dawkin may be died for me, about six months, but folks says he got about again.

J. Dennison,

(At the Store formerly belonging to Mr. AARON LOPEZ, deceased)

HAS FOR SALE,

A GENERAL ASSORTMENT of

BOOKS and STATIONARY;

Which he will sell as cheap as can be bought at any Store in the United States:——Consisting of Divinity, Law, Physic, Philosophy, History, Geography, Voyages, Travels, Biography, Poetry, Novels, Romances, Plays, Miscellanies, &c.——Morse's American Gazetteer (just from the Press) Rousseau on Politics and Stuart's new Practical System of Human Reason.——Also a general Assortment of School-Books &c. &c.

Newport Aug. 14, 1797.

TO BE SOLD,

A NEW Building, 24 Feet Wide, in the Back Street, to be seen the Estate of Mr Jonathan Jeffers and Captain Oliver Read, suitable for a Dwelling House, or such other Purpose as the Purchaser may think proper.—The said Building to be removed.—For Terms, apply to

THOMAS TOWNSEND.

Newport August 15, 1797.

WANTED,

A SMALL, genteel Tenement, in or near any Part of the Town—for which a generous Rent will be given.—Enquire of the Printer.

Newport, August 14, 1797.

LOST, about a Fortnight since,

A Blue PARROT, with a Red Face.—Whoever has found PARROT, and will return him to the Subscriber, shall have TWO DOLLARS Reward.

Newport August 1, 1797.

Rosehall & Burdick,

Have just imported in Northwestern and Hope, from Liverpool, a compleat assortment of Men's BOOTS and SHOES, made on the most fashionable Lasts, and of the best Leather; also a handsome assortment of Women's Kid Shoes, heavily laden with a great Variety of Imported Goods, which they will sell as cheap as can be bought in this Town, for Cash or approved Credit.

Also, a great Variety of Iron Hoops, through the Assistance of a Machine, made at the above-mentioned Shop, of all Sizes, made at the shortest Notice.

They return their sincere Thanks for favours past, and hope for a continuance of the same.

Newport, August 14, 1797.

PROPOSAL,

FOR PUBLISHING, BY SUBSCRIPTION,

A New Work, entitled,

REUBEN AND RACHEL;

OR,

TALES OF OLD TIMES.

A NOVEL.

IN TWO VOLUMES.

BY MRS. ROWSON,

Author of Victoria, Charlotte, Fille de Chambre, Trials of the Heart, &c &c.

CONDITIONS.

I. The Work shall be printed on a good Paper, and a handsome Type.

II. It will consist of about Three Hundred Pages, Duodecimo.

III. The Price to Subscribers, for the Two Volumes, handsomely bound in One, and lettered, will be One Dollar, to be paid at the Time of subscribing.

IV. The Work shall be put to Press, as soon as Three Hundred Copies are subscribed for.

☞ SUBSCRIPTIONS are received by Mrs. ROWSON, at Mr. Woodward's, near the Parade.

FOR SALE, BY

SIMON DAVIS,

A Great Variety of Crockery and Glass Ware assorted; Crates of Crockery Ware assorted; Boxes of Glass Ware, containing Decanters, Tumblers, Wine Glasses, Mugs, &c.—A few Boxes of Castile Soap.

The above Articles by Wholesale and Retail.

French Brandy by Pipe, Barrel, or Half Barrel; excellent Sherry Wine, by the Cask; a Quantity of Paper Hangings, by Wholesale or Retail; and a few Pounds of sewing Silk.

The best of Old Madeira Wine, Sherry, Port, Lisbon, Malaga, Claret; Brandy; Rum; London Porter, Brown Stout; Hyson Tea; Chocolate; Sweet Oil;—and many other Articles in the Grocery Line, by Retail.

A few Puncheons of 28 and 31 Proof Windward Island RUM, cheap for Cash.

Also a few Hogsheads and Tierces of good Molasses.

Best Port au Prince Molasses, by Hogshead; Flour per Barrel, first Quality; Muscovado Sugars, per Barrel.

New England Rum by the Hogshead, Barrel, or less Quantity; Havannah White Sugar by the Barrel or Box; Rice, by the Tierce; Turpentine and Pitch by the Barrel.

Newport, July 25, 1797.

FOR SALE, BY

CHARLES LASSALE,

A Beautiful and very extensive Variety of the most fashionable and elegant Kind of Liverpool CROCKERY WARE.

Among which are,

A few neat Table Services,
Water Plates,
Tureens, in the Imitation of a Roast Turkey,
Dishes with Covers, green, blue, and brown Edge, and Cream Colour,
Ditto, with Pans and Covers, in the Imitation of Pies,
Ditto, Ditto, of Tarts,
Very Elegant Tea-Pots,
High and Low Candlesticks,

And a Number of other Articles, &c. &c.

☞ Those Ladies who will please to call at his Store, he is confident, may accommodate themselves with a most any Article, in the above Ware, they may have Occasion for, and of the newest Fashion.

Stephen Pierce

HAS FOR SALE,

BUNTING and ready made COLOURS. Also, an Assortment of neat GILT LOCKS and BRASS FURNITURE, POWDER and SHOT, and an Assortment of CROCKERY WARE.

☞ Likewise—Ten Boxes of MOULD CANDLES—GUNPOWDER, by the Cask—A Quantity of excellent SPANISH SEGARS, and six SMALL ARMS, to be sold low.

For SALE, by

SIMEON MARTIN,

MOLASSES, Sugar, Coffee, Hard and New-England Rum, by the Hogshead or Barrel;—Cotton, by the Bag;—and, 2000 Bushels of the best St. Ube's Salt.

Newport, August 7, 1797.

American manufactured Sail-Cloth,

Rhode-Island Fabrick,

No. 1, to 8,

Warranted equal to Imported,

FOR SALE, BY

Christopher Fowler.

Newport, July 10, 1797.

For Sale, by

Christopher Champlin,

RUSSIA clean HEMP,
Raven's DUCK,
Russia DUCK,
Old Sable BAR-IRON,
CORDAGE, of all Sizes,
Hard SOAP, per Box.
And, MOLASSES by the Hogshead.

Ethan Clarke,

HAS FOR SALE,

WEST-INDIA Rum, per Hogshead or Barrel,
Brandy and Gin, per Pipe or Ditto,
Sherry and Malaga Wine, per Cask,
Sugar and Flour, per Barrel,
Chocolate, Pipes, and Window-Glass, per Box,
Bohea Tea, per Chest or Dozen lbs.
Cotton per Bag, German Steel per Bar,
Iron Stoves, and Cabouses, of all Sorts,
Porter, and Brown Stout, by the Cask or Dozen, as Cheap as can be purchased in New-York, including the Freight——Ard,
Pepper and Coffee, by the Bag—very Cheap for Cash

Newport, June 26, 1797.

Just received, and now selling, by

Robert Lawton,

At his Shop, in Thames-street, opposite Mr. GEORGE GIBBS's,

An extensive Assortment of ENGLISH GOODS, of the latest and most fashionable Kind—among which are,

SUPERFINE and 2d Broadcloths, and Cassimeres—a great Variety of Fancy Vesting—Narkineis, Jeans and Fustians—many entire new figured Calicoes, and a great Variety of Muslins, and Ladies, and Gentlemens' fashionable Beaver HATS.

Likewise, chargeable Lutestrings, and Taffanies of various Colours, &c &c. &c.

For Sale, by

THOMAS HANDY,

At the Sugar-House lately improved by Messieurs OVERING & AUCHMUTY,

Single and double-refined, and Lump-Sugar, by the Quantity, or single Loaf.——Also, MOLASSES of a superior Quality, for retailing.

Just Received,

From on board the Ship RUSSELL, from CANTON,

A Quantity of excellent RHUBARB, warranted to be of a superior Quality to any ever imported into this Country, free from any Blemish or Impurity whatever——to be sold on very liberal Terms, in any Quantity, from One Dozen to One Thousand Pounds Weight.

Also, at a reduced Price—Nine Casks of LINSEED HOLLAND OIL—by repeated Trials proved to be of the very first Quality.

DRUGS, Medicines, Painter's Colours, Dye Stuffs, Spices, &c. &c. &c. as usual.

N. B. SEA MEDICINE Chests, with suitable Directions, prepared at the shortest Notice——Apply to the Subscribers, at their Store in Thames Street, opposite Mr. WILLIAM LANGLEY's.

JAMES TAYLOR & CO.

Newport, August 7, 1797.

WHEREAS HEPSIBAH, Wife of the Subscriber hath eloped from my Bed and Board, and behaved herself in a very unbecoming Manner: This is therefore to forewarn all Persons from trusting her on my Account, as I am determined not to pay any Debts of her contracting, after this Date.

ROGER FURRINGTON.

Portsmouth, August 15, 1797.

Linseed-Oil [illegible] encouragement of our fellow citizens, we are convinced [illegible]

James Cahoone & Son,

HAVE FOR SALE,

LINSEED-OIL, boil'd and unboil'd, per Cask or Gallon,
Best London White Lead, per Cask or smaller Quantity,
Spanish Brown, Ditto Ditto,
Whiting, Ditto Ditto,
Stone Yellow, Spruce Ditto,
Red Lead, Patent Yellow,
Verdigrease, Prussian Blue,
Gold Leaf, Silver Ditto.
Litharge, White Vitriol, Painter's Brushes, Camel's Hair Pencils, Spirits of Turpentine, Varnish, black Varnish of a superior Quality for Vessels, Rosin, Tar, &c. &c.

Any of the above Paints, ground in Oil or dry, properly prepared.

By sending the Dimensions of a House, Room, Vessel, &c. &c. their distant Customers may be supplied with a sufficient Quantity of Colours for any Work, on the shortest Notice, with Directions given therewith.

Also—9 by 7, and 8 by 6, Window Glass—and Putty.

Newport, August 7, 1797.

JUST LANDED,

The Cargo of the Ship Russell from Canton, consisting of BOHEA, Hyson, Hyson Skin, Young Hyson, Souchong, Chulang, } TEAS, fresh, and of superior Qualities.

CHINA, in Tea, Breakfast, and dining Sets,

Floor Matts, and Window Screens,

FOR SALE, BY

Gibbs & Channing.

Who have also for SALE,

Russia clean Hemp,
Cordage and Cables of all Dimensions,
Russia and Ravens Duck,
Russia and Swedes Iron, in flat and square Bars, assorted.
Cognac Brandy and Holland's Gin, oil proof, by the Pipe.
West-India and New-England Rum per Hogshead,
Sugar per Hogshead,
6 by 8, 7 by 9 Window Glass, by the Box or larger Quantity.

Newport, August 8, 1797.

For Sale, by

William & Tho. Handy,

At their MANUFACTORY, in Pelham-Street,

Between Mr. Townsend's Coffee-House and the General Treasurer's Office,

HARD-SOAP;

ALSO,

MOULD and dipt CANDLES,

Wholesale and Retail,

Warranted equal in Quality to any manufactured within the United States.

To be Sold, by

SHEFFIELD ATTWOOD,

At his STORE on the Point,

Jamaica Spirits, by the Hogshead or Barrel,
St. Croix and Demarara Rum, by the Hogshead or Barrel,
West-India and New-England RUM, by the Hogshead or Barrel,
BRANDY, by the Pipe or Barrel,
GENEVA, by the Pipe or Barrel,
MOLASSES, suitable for Retailing, by the Hogshead or Barrel,
A few Hogsheads of the first Quality Jamaica SUGAR,
Brown SUGAR, by the Hogshead or Barrel,
HYSON TEA, by the Dozen or Pound,
FLOUR—and RICE—by the Barrel.
BEEF, by the Barrel,

A SLOOP, new, and complete for Sea, about 80 Tons Burthen.

Also another Sloop, new, and complete for Sea, about 40 Tons Burthen.

Sundry Dwelling-Houses, situated in different Parts of this Town—To Let and Sell.

Two Townships in the District of Maine, which will be sold at 30 Cents per Acre.

He gives the highest Price in Old GOLD and SILVER.

HE

Carries on the BAKING Business, as usual—He has now on hand, a Quantity of SHIP and CAPIN BREAD, prepared for the largest Voyages, which he will sell as cheap as any imported, equally good.

Newport, June 5, 1797.

A GIANT THOUGHT.

From Mr PAINE's POEM, (just published in Boston) entitled "THE RULING PASSION."

FROM foreign feud, and civil discord free,
As is Columbia, may she ever be!
May Europe's storms ne'er damp the generous flame,
Which warms each bosom for his country's fame!
Long roll between our shores the Atlantic tide;
Wide as our hemisphere, our laws divide!
And should some earthquake, with more powerful vent,
Than that, which Dover's cliffs from Calais rent,
With prison'd force insurging Neptune's reign,
Convulse the deep foundations of the main,
'Till both the Continents, in nature's fright,
Cleft from their bases, totter to unite;
May FATE the clashing empires intervene,
And say, when Ocean sinks, an Alps between!

ANECDOTE.

SOme years since, a sober, zealous, Connecticut parson went to catechize a family in his parish, who were not so well versed in the rudiments of divinity as many are; when arrived, he thought proper to begin with Lois, the eldest daughter, a girl about eighteen, and buxom as May—whose charms had smitten the young village swains with an epidemick. "Well Lois," said the parson, "I shall begin with you"—"come tell me who died for you?"—Lois, with a charming flush in her cheek, replied—"why nobody as I know on."—The parson, rather surprized at her answer, repeated his question with increasing zeal—"Lois, I say, tell me who died for you?"—Poor Lois, rather irritated at the inquisitive parson, again replied why nobody, sir—there was Tom Dawson may be died for me, about six months, but folks says he got about again.

J. Dennison,

(At the Store formerly belonging to Mr. AARON LOPEZ, deceased)

HAS FOR SALE,

A GENERAL ASSORTMENT of

BOOKS and STATIONARY;

Which he will sell as cheap as can be bought at any Store in the United States:——Consisting of Divinity, Law, Physic, Philosophy, History, Geography, Voyages, Travels, Biography, Poetry, Novels, Romances, Plays, Miscellanies, &c.——Morse's American Gazetteer (just from the Press) Rousseau on Politics and Stuart's new Practical System of Human Reason.——Also, a general Assortment of School-Books, &c. &c.

Newport, Aug. 14, 1797.

TO BE SOLD,

A NEW Building, 24 Feet Wide, in the Back-street, situate between the Estates of Mr. Jonathan Jeffers and Captain Oliver Read, suitable for a Dwelling House, or such other Purpose as the Purchaser may think proper.—The said Building to be removed.——For Terms, apply to

THOMAS TOWNSEND.

Newport, August 15, 1797.

WANTED,

A SMALL, genteel Tenement, in any Part of the Town—for which a generous Rent will be given.——Inquire of the Printer.

Newport, August 14, 1797.

LOST, about a Fortnight since,

A Blue PARROT, with a Red Tail.——Whoever has found the PARROT, and will return him to the Printer hereof, shall have TWO DOLLARS Reward.

Newport, August 1, 1797.

Hedges Hall & Burdick,

[illegible] by the Northward [illegible] of their girdles [illegible] is a system of machinery, we can by no means approve of. Applications for the locks with all [illegible] keys for more approved Streets.

Mr. Baldwin [illegible] for Sale, a complete steam-engine [illegible] and smooth work [illegible] assortment of Men's BOOTS and made on [illegible] of various Kinds, heavily lad[illegible] all Kinds of Women's Stuff Shoes, than could [illegible] Morocco Slips and Sandals. through the [illegible] wife, a great Variety of fine Shoes the owners [illegible] Sandals.

[illegible] Kinds of Shoes, made at the above-[illegible] on the shortest Notice.

[illegible] present their Thanks for former[illegible], and hope for a Continuance [illegible] favours.

Newport, August 8, 1797.

PROPOSAL,

FOR PUBLISHING, BY SUBSCRIPTION,

A New Work, entitled,

REUBEN AND RACHEL;

OR,

TALES OF OLD TIMES.

A NOVEL.

IN TWO VOLUMES.

BY MRS. ROWSON,

Author of Victoria, Charlotte, Fille de Leambre, Trials of the Heart, &c. &c.

CONDITIONS.

I. The Work shall be printed on a good Paper, and a handsome Type.

II. It will consist of about Three Hundred Pages, Duodecimo.

III. The Price to Subscribers, for the Two Volumes, handsomely bound in One, and lettered, will be One Dollar, to be paid at the Time of subscribing.

IV. The Work shall be put to Press, as soon as Three Hundred Copies are subscribed for.

☞ SUBSCRIPTIONS are received by Mrs. ROWSON, at Mr. Woodward's, near the Parade.

FOR SALE, BY

SIMON DAVIS,

A Great Variety of Crockery and Glass Ware assorted; Chests of Crockery Ware assorted; Boxes of Glass Ware, containing Decanters, Tumblers, Wine Glasses, Mugs, &c.—A few Boxes of Castile Soap.

The above Articles by Wholesale and Retail.

French Brandy by Pipe, Barrel, or Half Barrel; excellent Sherry Wine, by the Cask; a Quantity of Paper Hangings, by Wholesale or Retail; and a few Pounds of sewing Silk.

The best of Old Madeira Wine, Sherry, Port, Lisbon, Malaga, Claret; Brandy; Rum; London Porter, Brown Stout; Hyson Tea; Chocolate; Sweet Oil;—and many other Articles in the Grocery Line, by Retail.

A few Puncheons of 4s and 3d Proof Windward Island RUM, cheap for Cash.

Also a few Hogsheads and Tierces of good Molasses.

Best Port au Prince Molasses, by Hogshead; Flour per Barrel, first Quality; Muscovado Sugars, per Barrel.

New England Rum by the Hogshead, Barrel, or less Quantity; Havannah White Sugar by the Barrel or Box; Rice, by the Tierce; Turpentine and Pitch by the Barrel.

Newport, July 25, 1797.

FOR SALE, BY

CHARLES LASSALE,

A Beautiful and very extensive Variety of the most fashionable and elegant Kind of Liverpool CROCKERY WARE.

Among which are,

A few neat Table Services,
Water Plates,
Tureens, in the Imitation of a Roast Turkey,
Dishes with Covers, green, blue, and brown Edge, and Cream Colour,
Ditto, with Pans and Covers, in the Imitation of Pies,
Ditto, Ditto, of Tarts,
Very Elegant Tea-Pots,
High and Low Candlesticks,

And a Number of other Articles, &c. &c.

☞ Those Ladies who will please to call at his Store, he is confident, may accommodate themselves with almost any Article, in the above Ware, they may have Occasion for, and of the newest Fashion.

Stephen Pierce

HAS FOR SALE,

BUNTING and ready made COLOURS. Also, an Assortment of neat GUN LOCKS and BRASS FURNITURE, POWDER and SHOT, and an Assortment of CROCKERY WARE.

☞ Likewise—Ten Boxes of MOULD CANDLES—GUNPOWDER, by the Cask—A Quantity of excellent SPANISH CIGARS, and Six SMALL ARMS, in Pair Order.

For SALE, by

SIMEON MARTIN,

MOLASSES, Sugar, Coffee, and New-England Rum, by the Hogshead or Barrel;—Cotton, by the Bag;—and, 2000 Bushels of the best St. Ube's Salt.

Newport, August 7, 1797.

American manufactured

Sail-Cloth,

Rhode-Island Fabrick,

No. 1, to 8,

Warranted equal to Imported,

FOR SALE, BY

Christopher Fowler.

Newport, July 10, 1797.

For Sale, by

Christopher Champlin,

RUSSIA clean HEMP,
Raven's DUCK,
Russia DUCK,
Old Sable BAR-IRON,
CORDAGE, of all Sizes,
Hard SOAP, per Box.
And, MOLASSES by the Hogshead.

Ethan Clarke,

HAS FOR SALE,

WEST-INDIA Rum, per Hogshead or Barrel,
Brandy and Gin, per Pipe or Ditto,
Sherry and Malaga Wine, per Cask,
Sugar and Flour, per Barrel,
Chocolate, Pipes, and Window-Glass, per Box,
Bohea Tea, per Chest or Dozen lbs.
Cotton per Bag, German Steel per Bar,
Iron Stoves, and Cabouses, of all Sorts,
Porter, and Brown Stout, by the Cask or Dozen, as Cheap as can be purchased in New-York, including the Freight——And,
Pepper and Coffee, by the Bag—very Cheap for Cash

Newport, June 26, 1797.

Just received, and now selling, by

Robert Lawton,

At his Shop, in Thames-street, opposite Mr. GEORGE GIBBS's,

An extensive Assortment of ENGLISH GOODS, of the latest and most fashionable Kind—among which are,

SUPERFINE and 2d Broadcloths, and Cassimeres—a great Variety of Fancy Vesting—Nankeens, Jeans and Fustians—many entire new figured Calicoes, and a great Variety of Muslins, and Ladies, and Gentlemens' fashionable Beaver HATS.

Likewise, chargeable Lutestrings, and Taffanies of various Colours, &c. &c. &c.

For Sale, by

THOMAS HANDY,

At the Sugar-House lately improved by Messieurs OVERING & AUCHMUTY,

Single and double-refined, and Lump-Sugar, by the Quantity, or single Loaf.——Also, MOLASSES of a superior Quality, for retailing.

Just Received,

From on board the Ship RUSSELL, from CANTON,

A Quantity of excellent RHUBARB, warranted to be of a superior Quality to any ever imported into this Country, free from any Blemish or Impurity whatever——to be sold on very liberal Terms, in any Quantity, from One Dozen to One Thousand Pounds Weight.

Also, at a reduced Price—Nine Casks of LINSEED HOLLAND OIL—by repeated Trials proved to be of the very first Quality.

DRUGS, Medicines, Painter's Colours, Dye Stuffs, Spices, &c. &c. &c. as usual.

N B. SEA MEDICINE Chests, with suitable Directions, prepared at the shortest Notice——Apply to the Subscribers, at their Store in Thames Street, opposite Mr. WILLIAM LANGLEY's.

JAMES TAYLOR & CO.

Newport, August 7, 1797.

WHEREAS HEPZIBAH, Wife of the Subscriber hath eloped from my Bed and Board, and behaved herself in a very unbecoming Manner: This is therefore to forwarn all Persons from trusting her on my Account, as I am determined not to pay any Debts of her contracting, after this Date.

ROGER FURRINGTON.

Portsmouth, August 25, 1797.

Linseed-Oil [illegible] through from [illegible] fashment of our fellow citizens, we are convinced [illegible] their [illegible]

James Cahoone & Son,

HAVE FOR SALE,

LINSEED-OIL, boil'd and unboil'd, per Cask or Gallon,
Best London White Lead, per Cask or smaller Quantity,
Spanish Brown, Ditto Ditto,
Whiting, Ditto Ditto,
Stone Yellow, Spruce Ditto,
Red Lead, Patent Yellow,
Verdigrease, Prussian Blue,
Gold Leaf, Silver Ditto.

Litharge, White Vitriol, Painter's Brushes, Camel's Hair Pencils, Spirits of Turpentine, Varnish, black Varnish of a superior Quality for Vessels, Rosin, Tar, &c. &c.

Any of the above Paints, ground in Oil or dry, properly prepared.

By sending the Dimensions of a House, Room, Vessel, &c. &c. their distant Customers may be supplied with a sufficient Quantity of Colours for any Work, on the shortest Notice, with Directions given therewith.

Also—— 9 by 7, and 8 by 6, Window Glass—and Putty.

Newport, August 7, 1797.

JUST LANDED,

The Cargo of the Ship Russell from Canton, consisting of

BOHEA,
Hyson,
Hyson Skin,
Young Hyson,
Souchong,
Chulang,

} TEAS, fresh, and of superior Qualities.

CHINA, in Tea, Breakfast, and dining Setts,

Floor Matts, and Window Screens,

FOR SALE, BY

Gibbs & Channing.

Who have also for SALE,

Russia clean Hemp,
Cordage and Cables of all Dimensions,
Russia and Ravens Duck,
Russia and Swedes Iron, in flat and square Bars, assorted.
Cognac Brandy and Holland's Gin, oil proof, by the Pipe.
West-India and New-England Rum per Hogshead,
Sugar per Hogshead,
6 by 8, 7 by 9 Window Glass, by the Box or larger Quantity.

Newport, August 8, 1797.

For Sale, by

William & Tho. Handy,

At their MANUFACTORY, in Pelham-Street,

Between Mr. Townsend's Coffee-House and the General Treasurer's Office,

HARD-SOAP;

ALSO,

MOULD and dipt CANDLES,

Wholesale and Retail,

Warranted equal in Quality to any manufactured within the United States.

To be Sold, by

SHEFFIELD ATTWOOD,

At his STORE on the Point,

Jamaica Spirits, by the Hogshead or Barrel,
St. Croix and Demarara Rum, by the Hogshead or Barrel,
West-India and New-England RUM, by the Hogshead or Barrel,
BRANDY, by the Pipe or Barrel,
GENEVA, by the Pipe or Barrel,
MOLASSES, suitable for Retailing, by the Hogshead or Barrel,
A few Hogsheads of the first Quality Jamaica SUGAR,
Brown SUGAR, by the Hogshead or Barrel,
HYSON TEA, by the Dozen or Pound,
FLOUR—and RICE—by the Barrel,
BEEF, by the Barrel,

A SLOOP, new, and complete for Sea, about 80 Tons Burthen.

Also another Sloop, new, and complete for Sea, about 40 Tons Burthen.

Sundry Dwelling-Houses, situated in different Parts of this Town—To Let and Sell.

Two Townships in the District of Maine, which will be sold at 30 Cents per Acre.

He gives the highest Price for Old GOLD and SILVER.

HE

Carries on the BAKING Business, as usual—He has now on hand, a Quantity of SHIP and CABIN BREAD, prepared for the longest Voyages, which he will sell as cheap as any imported, equally good.

Newport, June 5, 1797.